PREFACE.

---

As directed by the Statutes I present the Register for 1896. Its compilation has been performed with more than the usual accuracy, if that were possible. The votes of such towns as voted on the license question are given, and where no vote was taken the result of the last vote is given. For a list of the physicians in the state we are indebted to Dr. C. A. Lindsley of New Haven, Secretary of the State Board of Health.

WILLIAM C. MOWRY,

Secretary.

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this book is to provide a comprehensive survey of the history of the United States from the time of the first European settlement to the present. The book is divided into three main parts: the first part covers the period from 1492 to 1776, the second part covers the period from 1776 to 1865, and the third part covers the period from 1865 to the present. The book is written in a clear and concise style, and it is suitable for use as a textbook in a history course.

THE CAPITOL.

In 1871 the General Assembly appointed a commission to contract for and fully complete a Capitol building in Hartford, and appropriated five hundred thousand dollars, authorizing the city of Hartford to appropriate and issue bonds to the extent of one million dollars for the same purpose.

The commission accepted the present site from the city of Hartford and the plan of Mr. R. M. Upjohn of New York, as a design for the building.

In 1873 the plan was changed to a design for the present fire-proof building, and one million dollars additional appropriated by the State. A new commission was also appointed.

The General Assembly opened its first regular session in the building in January, 1879, but it was not fully completed until some months later.

The entire cost, including heating and ventilating apparatus and such statuary as was placed at the time of erection, was $2,532,524.43, and the cost of the furniture was about one hundred thousand dollars more.

The rooms used for offices and by committees are numbered from 1 to 80. The Senate Chamber and Representatives Hall on the second floor, and the State Library on the third floor are not numbered.

The dimensions are as follows :

Extreme length, two hundred ninety-five feet, eight inches. Width of central part, one hundred eighty-nine feet four inches ; of wings, one hundred eleven feet, eight inches. Height from ground to top of roof, ninety-two feet, eight inches ; to top of crowning figure, two hundred fifty-seven feet, two inches.

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

IN CONGRESS,

JULY 4, 1776.

---

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION

OF THE

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed, by their Creator, with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature, a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation :

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us :

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States :

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world :

For imposing taxes on us without our consent :

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury :

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offenses :

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies :

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering fundamentally the forms of our governments :

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy, scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executioners of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.

In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them, from time to time, of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connexions and correspondence. They, too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, enemies in war, in peace, friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by the authority of the good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown, and that all political connexion between them and the State of Great Britain, is, and ought to be, totally dissolved; and that as free and independent States, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent States may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

PREAMBLE.

WE, THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.

1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

SECTION 2.

1. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States; and the electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State legislature.

2. No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen.

3. Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each State shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three; Massachusetts, eight; Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, one; Connecticut, five; New York, six; New Jersey, four; Pennsylvania, eight; Delaware, one; Maryland, six; Virginia, ten; North Carolina, five; South Carolina, five; and Georgia, three.

4. When vacancies happen in the representation from any State, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

5. The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers, and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECTION 3.

1. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each State, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years, and each senator shall have one vote.

2. Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any State, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

3. No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

4. The vice-president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote unless they be equally divided.

5. The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore in the absence of the vice-president or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

6. The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

7. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit under the United States; but the party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment, according to law.

SECTION 4.

1. The times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives shall be prescribed in each State by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators.

2. The congress shall assemble at least once in every year; and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

SECTION 5.

1. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner and under such penalties as each house may provide.

2. Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

3. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may, in their judgment, require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

4. Neither house, during the session of congress, shall without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

SECTION 6.

1. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall, in all cases except treason, felony, and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house they shall not be questioned in any other place.

2. No senator or representative shall during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased, during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

SECTION 7.

1. All bills for raising revenues shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

2. Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve, he shall sign it; but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to that house in which it shall have originated; who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

3. Every order, resolution or vote, to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment), shall be presented to the president of the United States; and, before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him; or, being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

SECTION 8.

The congress shall have power:

1. To lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts, and excises; to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts, and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States.

2. To borrow money on the credit of the United States.

3. To regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian tribes.

4. To establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States.

5. To coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures.

6. To provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States.

7. To establish post-offices and post-roads.

8. To promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times, to authors and inventors, the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries.

9. To constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court; to define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offenses against the law of nations.

10. To declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water.

11. To raise and support armies; but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years.

12. To provide and maintain a navy.

13. To make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces.

14. To provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions.

15. To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States; reserving to the States respectively the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress.

16. To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular States, and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of the government of the United States; and to exercise like authority over all places purchased, by the consent of the legislature of the State in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards, and other needful buildings; and

17. To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

SECTION 9.

1. The migration or importation of such persons as any of the States now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year, one thousand eight hundred and eight; but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

2. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it.

3. No bill of attainder, or ex post facto law shall be passed.

4. No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration herein before directed to be taken.

5. No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any

State. No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one State over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to or from one State be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

6. No money shall be drawn from the treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

7. No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign State.

SECTION 10.

1. No State shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts; or grant any title of nobility.

2. No State shall, without the consent of the congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws, and the net produce of all duties and imposts laid by any State on imports or exports shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States, and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of the congress. No State shall, without the consent of congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another State, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

SECTION 1.

1. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years; and, together with the vice-president chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

2. Each State shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the State may be entitled in the congress but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

3. [The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose by ballot, one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then, from the five highest on the list, the said house shall, in like manner, choose the president. But in choosing the president, the vote shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice-president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them, by ballot, the vice-president.]*

4. The congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes, which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

5. No person, except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

6. In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice-president; and the congress may, by law, provide for the case of removal, death, resignation or inability, both of the president and vice-president, declaring what officer shall then act as president; and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

7. The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected; and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

* This paragraph has been superseded and annulled by the 12th amendment.

8. Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation :

“I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States; and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the constitution of the United States.”

SECTION 2.

1. The president shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several States, when called into the actual service of the United States. He may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices; and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

2. He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate shall appoint, ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law. But the congress may, by law, vest the appointment of such inferior officers as they think proper, in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

3. The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

SECTION 3.

1. He shall, from time to time, give to the congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient. He may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them; and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper. He shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed; and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

SECTION 4.

1. The president, vice-president, and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.

1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may, from time to time, ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior; and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

SECTION 2.

1. The judicial power shall extend to all cases in law and equity arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers, and consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more States; between a State and citizens of another State; between citizens of different States between citizens of the same State claiming lands under grants of different States, and between a State, or the citizens thereof, and foreign States, citizens or subjects.

2. In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a State shall be party, the supreme court, shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions and under such regulations as the congress shall make.

3. The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury, and such trial shall be held in the State where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the trial shall be at such place or places as the congress may by law have directed.

SECTION 3.

1. Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort.

No person shall be convicted of treason, unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

2. The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason; but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV.

SECTION 1.

1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each State to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other State; and the congress may, by general laws, prescribe the manner in which such acts, records, and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

SECTION 2.

1. The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States.

2. A person charged in any State with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another State, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having jurisdiction of the crime.

3. No person held to service or labor in one State under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor; but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

SECTION 3.

1. New States may be admitted by the congress into this union; but no new State shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other State, nor any State be formed by the junction of two or more States or parts of States, without the consent of the legislatures of the States concerned, as well as of the congress.

2. The congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting, the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular State.

SECTION 4.

1. The United States shall guarantee to every State in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and, on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V.

1. The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution; or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several States, shall call a convention for proposing amendments which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress; provided that no amendment, which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no State, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

1. All debts contracted and engagements entered into before the adoption of this constitution shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution, as under the confederation.

2. This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, any thing in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding.

3. The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several State legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several States, shall be bound by oath or affirmation to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

1. The ratification of the conventions of nine States shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the States so ratifying the same.

Done in convention by the unanimous consent of the States present, the seventeenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the twelfth. In witness whereof we have hereunto subscribed our names.

AMENDMENTS.

TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

The following amendments were proposed at the first session of the first congress of the United States, which was begun and held at the city of New York on the 4th of March, 1789, and were adopted by the requisite number of States. Laws of the U. S., vol. 1, page 82.

[The following preamble and resolution preceded the original proposition of the amendments, and as they have been supposed to have an important bearing on the construction of those amendments, they are here inserted. They will be found in the journals of the first session of the first congress.]

CONGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Begun and held at the city of New York, on Wednesday, the 4th day of March, 1789.

The conventions of a number of the States having, at the time of their adopting the constitution, expressed a desire, in order to prevent misconstruction or abuse of its powers, that further declaratory and restrictive clauses should be added, and as extending the ground of public confidence in the government will best insure the beneficent ends of its institution :

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in congress assembled, two-thirds of both houses concurring, that the following articles be proposed to the legislatures of the several States, as amendments to the constitution of the United States; all or any of which articles, when ratified by three-fourths of the said legislatures, to be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of the said constitution, namely :

ARTICLE I.*

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

ARTICLE II.

A well regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free State the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

ARTICLE III.

No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

---

*The first twelve Articles of these Amendments were never ratified by this State

ARTICLE IV.

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrants shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

ARTICLE V.

No person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself; nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation.

ARTICLE VI.

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law; and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defense.

ARTICLE VII.

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved; and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.*

ARTICLE VIII.

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

ARTICLE IX.

The enumeration in the constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

---

* This affects only United States Courts.

ARTICLE X.

The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, are reserved to the States respectively, or to the people.

[The following amendment was proposed at the second session of the third congress. It is printed in the Laws of the United States, vol. 1, p. 73, as article 11.]

ARTICLE XI.

The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another State, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

[The three following sections were proposed as amendments at the first session of the eighth congress. They are printed in the laws of the United States as article 12.]

ARTICLE XII.

1. The electors shall meet in their respective States, and vote by ballot for president and vice-president, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice-president; and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice-president, and of the number of votes for each; which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes for president shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers, not exceeding three, on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by States, the representation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president, whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice-president shall act as president as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president.

2. The person having the greatest number of votes as vice-president shall be the vice-president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list the senate shall choose the vice-president. A quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

3. But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice-president of the United States.

ARTICLE XIII.*

SECTION 1.

Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

SECTION 2.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

ARTICLE XIV.†

SECTION 1.

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

SECTION 2.

Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice-president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

SECTION 3.

No person shall be a senator or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice-president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

SECTION 4.

The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debt, obligations, and claims shall be held illegal and void.

SECTION 5.

The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE XV.*

SECTION 1.

The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2.

The congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

PREAMBLE.

The people of Connecticut, acknowledging with gratitude the good providence of God in having permitted them to enjoy a free government, do, in order more effectually to define, secure, and perpetuate the liberties, rights, and privileges which they have derived from their ancestors, hereby, after a careful consideration and revision, ordain and establish the following Constitution and form of civil government:

ARTICLE FIRST.

DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

That the great and essential principles of liberty and free government may be recognized and established,

We Declare,

SECTION 1. That all men, when they form a social compact, are equal in rights; and that no man or set of men are entitled to exclusive public emoluments or privileges from the community.

SEC. 2. That all political power is inherent in the people, and all free governments are founded on their authority, and instituted for their benefit; and that they have at all times an undeniable and indefeasible right to alter their form of government in such a manner as they may think expedient.

SEC. 3. The exercise and enjoyment of religious profession and worship, without discrimination, shall forever be free to all persons in this State, provided that the right hereby declared and established shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness, or to justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the State.

SEC. 4. No preference shall be given by law to any Christian sect or mode of worship.

SEC. 5. Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty.

SEC. 6. No law shall ever be passed to curtail or restrain the liberty of speech or of the press.

SEC. 7. In all prosecutions or indictments for libels, the truth may be given in evidence, and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts, under the direction of the court.

SEC. 8. The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and possessions from unreasonable searches or seizures, and no warrant to search any place, or to seize any person or things, shall issue without describing them as nearly as may be, nor without probable cause supported by oath or affirmation.

SEC. 9. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall have a right to be heard by himself and by counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted by the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process to obtain witnesses in his favor; and in all prosecutions, by indictment or information, a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, but by due course of law. And no person shall be holden to answer for any crime, the punishment of which may be death or imprisonment for life, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury; except in the land or naval forces, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

SEC. 10. No person shall be arrested, detained, or punished, except in cases clearly warranted by law.

SEC. 11. The property of no person shall be taken for public use without just compensation therefor.

SEC. 12. All courts shall be open, and every person, for an injury done to him in his person, property, or reputation, shall have remedy by due course of law, and right and justice administered without sale, denial, or delay.

SEC. 13. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed.

SEC. 14. All prisoners shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offences, where the proof is evident, or the presumption great; and the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when, in case of rebellion or invasion, the public safety may require it; nor in any case, but by the legislature.

SEC. 15. No person shall be attainted of treason or felony by the legislature.

SEC. 16. The citizens have a right, in a peaceable manner, to assemble for their common good, and to apply to those invested with the powers of government, for redress of grievances, or other proper purposes, by petition, address, or remonstrance.

SEC. 17. Every citizen has a right to bear arms in defence of himself and the State.

SEC. 18. The military shall, in all cases and at all times, be in strict subordination to the civil power.

SEC. 19. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

SEC. 20. No hereditary emoluments, privileges, or honors shall ever be granted or conferred in this State.

SEC. 21. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate.

ARTICLE SECOND.

OF THE DISTRIBUTION OF POWERS.

The powers of government shall be divided into three distinct departments, and each of them confided to a separate magistracy, to wit: those which are legislative, to one; those which are executive, to another; and those which are judicial, to another.

ARTICLE THIRD.

OF THE LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The legislative power of this State shall be vested in two distinct houses or branches; the one to be styled THE SENATE, the other THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, and both together THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. The style of their laws shall be, Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened.

SEC. 2. There shall be one stated session of the General Assembly, to be holden in each year, alternately at Hartford and New Haven, on the first Wednesday of May,* and at such other times as the General Assembly shall judge necessary; the first session to be holden at Hartford; but the person administering the office of Governor may, on special emergencies, convene the General Assembly at either of said places, at any other time. And in case of danger from the prevalence of contagious diseases in either of said places, or other circumstances, the person administering the office of Governor may by proclamation convene said Assembly at any other place in this State.

SEC. 3. The House of Representatives shall consist of electors residing in towns from which they are elected. The number of Representatives from each town shall be the same as at present practiced and allowed. In case a new town shall hereafter be incorporated, such new town shall be entitled to one representative only;† and if such new town shall be made from one or more towns, the town or towns from which the same shall be made shall be entitled to the same number of Representatives as at present allowed, unless the number shall be reduced by the consent of such town or towns.

SEC. 4. The Senate shall consist of twelve members, to be chosen annually by the electors.‡

SEC. 5. At the meetings of the electors, held in the several towns in this State in April annually, after the election of Representatives, the electors present shall be called upon to bring in their written ballots for Senators.§ The presiding officer shall receive the votes of the electors, and count and declare them in open meeting. The presiding officer shall also make duplicate lists of the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each, which shall be certified by the presiding officer; one of which lists shall be delivered to the Town Clerk, and the other, within ten days after said meeting, shall be delivered, under seal, either to the Secretary or to the sheriff of the county in which said town is situated: which list shall be directed to the Secretary, with a superscription expressing the purport of the contents thereof; and each sheriff who shall receive such votes shall, within fifteen days after said meeting, deliver, or cause them to be delivered, to the Secretary.

* Altered by amendments of 1872, 1875, 1876, and 1884.

† Altered by amendments of 1828, 1836, and 1875.

‡ Altered by amendments of 1828, 1836, and 1875.

§ Altered by amendment of 1836, 1875, 1884.

SEC. 6. The Treasurer, Secretary, and Comptroller, for the time being, shall canvass the votes publicly. The twelve persons having the greatest number of votes for Senators shall be declared to be elected.* But in cases where no choice is made by the electors, in consequence of an equality of votes, the House of Representatives shall designate, by ballot, which of the candidates having such equal number of votes shall be declared to be elected. The return of votes, and the result of the canvass, shall be submitted to the House of Representatives, and also to the Senate, on the first day of the session of the General Assembly; and each House shall be the final judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members.

SEC. 7. The House of Representatives, when assembled, shall choose a speaker, clerk, and other officers. The Senate shall choose its clerk and other officers except the President. A majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner, and under such penalties, as each House may prescribe.

SEC. 8. Each House shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, punish members for disorderly conduct, and, with the consent of two-thirds, expel a member, but not a second time for the same cause; and shall have all other powers necessary for a branch of the legislature of a free and independent State.

SEC. 9. Each House shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and publish the same, when required by one-fifth of its members, except such parts as, in the judgment of a majority, require secrecy. The yeas and nays of the members of either House shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journals.

SEC. 10. The Senators and Representatives shall, in all cases of civil process, be privileged from arrest during the session of the General Assembly, and for four days before the commencement and after the termination of any session thereof. And for any speech or debate in either House, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

SEC. 11. The debates of each House shall be public, except on such occasions as, in the opinion of the House, may require secrecy.

ARTICLE FOURTH.

OF THE EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The supreme executive power of the State shall be vested in a Governor, who shall be chosen by the electors of the State, and shall hold his office for one year from the first Wednesday of May† next succeeding his election, and until his successor be duly qualified. No person who is not an elector of this State, and who has not arrived at the age of thirty years, shall be eligible.

SEC. 2. At the meetings of the electors in the respective towns, in the month of April in each year,‡ immediately after the election of Senators, the presiding officers shall call upon the electors to bring in their ballots for him whom they would elect to be Governor, with his name fairly * Altered by amendments of 1828, and 1875.

† Made to apply to biennial elections by amendment of 1875.

‡ Made to apply to biennial elections by amendment of 1876

written. When such ballots shall have been received and counted in the presence of the electors, duplicate lists of the persons voted for, and of the number of votes given for each, shall be made and certified by the presiding officer, one of which lists shall be deposited in the office of the Town Clerk within three days, and the other within ten days, after said election, shall be transmitted to the Secretary, or to the sheriff of the county in which such election shall have been held. The sheriff receiving said votes shall deliver, or cause them to be delivered, to the Secretary within fifteen days next after said election. The votes so returned shall be counted by the Treasurer, Secretary, and Comptroller, within the month of April. A fair list of the persons and number of votes given for each, together with the returns of the presiding officers, shall be, by the Treasurer, Secretary, and Comptroller, made and laid before the General Assembly, then next to be holden, on the first day of the session thereof; and said Assembly shall, after examination of the same, declare the person whom they shall find to be legally chosen, and give him notice accordingly. If no person shall have a majority of the whole number of said votes, or if two or more shall have an equal and the greatest number of said votes, then said Assembly, on the second day of their session, by joint ballot of both Houses, shall proceed, without debate, to choose a Governor from a list of the names of the two persons having the greatest number of votes, or of the names of the persons having an equal and highest number of votes so returned as aforesaid. The General Assembly shall by law prescribe the manner in which all questions concerning the election of a Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor, shall be determined.

SEC. 3. At the annual meetings of the electors, immediately after the election of Governor, there shall also be chosen, in the same manner as is hereinbefore provided for the election of Governor, a Lieutenant-Governor,* who shall continue in office for the same time, and possess the same qualifications.

SEC. 4. The compensations of the Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Senators, and Representatives, shall be established by law, and shall not be varied so as to take effect until after an election, which shall next succeed the passage of the law establishing said compensations.

SEC. 5. The Governor shall be Captain-General of the militia of the State, except when called into the service of the United States.

SEC. 6. He may require information in writing from the officers in the executive department, on any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices.

SEC. 7. The Governor, in case of a disagreement between the two Houses of the General Assembly respecting the time of adjournment, may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper, not beyond the day of the next stated session.

SEC. 8. He shall, from time to time, give to the General Assembly information of the state of the government, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall deem expedient.

SEC. 9. He shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed.

SEC. 10. The Governor shall have power to grant reprieves after conviction, in all cases except those of impeachment, until the end of the next session of the General Assembly, and no longer.

* Altered by amendment of 1875.

SEC. 11. All commissions shall be in the name and by authority of the State of Connecticut; shall be sealed with the State seal, signed by the Governor, and attested by the Secretary.

SEC. 12. Every bill which shall have passed both Houses of the General Assembly shall be presented to the Governor. If he approves, he shall sign and transmit it to the Secretary, but if not he shall return it to the House in which it originated, with his objections, which shall be entered on the journals of the House; who shall proceed to reconsider the bill. If, after such reconsideration, that House shall again pass it, it shall be sent, with objections, to the other House, which shall also reconsider it. If approved, it shall become a law. But in such cases the votes of both Houses shall be determined by yeas and nays; and the names of the members voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journals of each house respectively. If the bill shall not be returned by the Governor within three days, Sundays excepted, after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it; unless the General Assembly, by their adjournment, prevents its return; in which case it shall not be a law.

SEC. 13. The Lieutenant-Governor shall, by virtue of his office, be President of the Senate, and have, when in Committee of the Whole, a right to debate; and when the Senate is equally divided, to give the casting vote.

SEC. 14. In case of the death, resignation, refusal to serve, or removal from office of the Governor, or of his impeachment or absence from the State, the Lieutenant-Governor shall exercise the powers and authority appertaining to the office of Governor, until another be chosen at the next periodical election for Governor, and be duly qualified; or until the Governor, impeached or absent, shall be acquitted or return.

SEC. 15. When the government shall be administered by the Lieutenant-Governor, or he shall be unable to attend as President of the Senate, the Senate shall elect one of their members as President pro tempore. And if during the vacancy of the office of Governor the Lieutenant-Governor shall die, resign, refuse to serve, or be removed from office, or if he shall be impeached or absent from the State, the President of the Senate pro tempore shall, in like manner, administer the government, until he be superseded by a Governor, or Lieutenant-Governor.

SEC. 16. If the Lieutenant-Governor shall be required to administer the Government, and shall, while in such administration, die or resign during the recess of the General Assembly, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, for the time being, to convene the Senate for the purpose of choosing a President pro tempore.

SEC. 17. A Treasurer shall annually be chosen by the electors at their meeting in April; * and the votes shall be returned, counted, canvassed, and declared in the same manner as is provided for the election of Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, but the votes for Treasurer shall be canvassed by the Secretary and Comptroller only. He shall receive all moneys belonging to the State, and disburse the same only as he may be directed by law. He shall pay no warrant or order for the disbursement of public money, until the same has been registered in the office of the Comptroller.

* Altered by amendments of 1836, and 1875.

SEC. 18. A Secretary shall be chosen next after the Treasurer, and in the same manner;* and the votes for Secretary shall be returned to, and counted, canvassed, and declared by the Treasurer and Comptroller. He shall have the safe keeping and custody of the public records and documents, and particularly of the Acts, Resolutions, and orders of the General Assembly, and record the same; and perform all such duties as shall be prescribed by law. He shall be the keeper of the seal of the State, which shall not be altered.

SEC. 19. A Comptroller of the Public Accounts shall be annually appointed by the General Assembly.* He shall adjust and settle all public accounts and demands, except grants and orders of the General Assembly. He shall prescribe the mode of keeping and rendering all public accounts. He shall ex officio be one of the auditors of the accounts of the Treasurer. The General Assembly may assign to him other duties in relation to his office, and to that of the Treasurer, and shall prescribe the manner in which his duties shall be performed.

SEC. 20. A sheriff shall be appointed in each county by the General Assembly,† who shall hold his office for three years,‡ removable by said Assembly, and shall become bound, with sufficient sureties to the Treasurer of the State, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law. In case the sheriff of any county shall die or resign, the Governor may fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, until the same shall be filled by the General Assembly.

SEC. 21. A statement of all receipts, payments, funds, and debts of the State, shall be published from time to time, in such manner and at such periods as shall be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE FIFTH.

OF THE JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a Supreme Court of Errors, a Superior Court, and such inferior courts as the General Assembly shall, from time to time, ordain and establish; the powers and jurisdiction of which courts shall be defined by law.

SEC. 2. There shall be appointed in each county a sufficient number of justices of the peace, with such jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases as the General Assembly may prescribe.

SEC. 3. The Judges of the Supreme Court of Errors, of the Superior and Inferior courts, and all justices of the peace, shall be appointed by the General Assembly, in such manner as shall by law be prescribed.§ The Judges of the Supreme Court and the Superior Court shall hold their offices during good behavior,§ but may be removed by impeachment; and the Governor shall also remove them on the address of two-thirds of the members of each House of the General Assembly; all other judges and justices of the peace shall be appointed annually.|| No judge or justice of the peace shall be capable of holding his office after he shall arrive at the age of seventy years.

ARTICLE SIXTH.

OF THE QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS.

SECTION 1. All persons who have been, or shall hereafter, previous to the ratification of this Constitution, be admitted freemen, according to the existing laws of this State, shall be electors.

SEC. 2. Every white* male citizen of the United States, who shall have gained a settlement in this State, attained the age of twenty-one years and resided in the town in which he may offer himself to be admitted to the privilege of an elector, at least six months preceding; and have a freehold estate of the yearly value of seven dollars in this State; or, having been enrolled in the militia, shall have performed military duty therein for the term of one year next preceding the time he shall offer himself for admission,* or being liable thereto shall have been, by authority of law, excused therefrom; or shall have paid a State tax within the year next preceding the time he shall present himself for such admission; and shall sustain a good moral character, shall, on his taking such oath as may be prescribed by law, be an elector.

SEC. 3. The privileges of an elector shall be forfeited by a conviction of bribery, forgery, perjury, duelling, fraudulent bankruptcy, theft, or other offence for which an infamous punishment is inflicted.†

SEC. 4. Every elector shall be eligible to any office in this State, except in cases provided for in this Constitution.

SEC. 5. The selectmen and town clerk of the several towns shall decide on the qualifications of electors, at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 6. Laws shall be made to support the privilege of free suffrage, prescribing the manner of regulating and conducting meetings of the electors, and prohibiting, under adequate penalties, all undue influence therein, from power, bribery, tumult, and other improper conduct.

SEC. 7. In all elections of officers of the State, or members of the General Assembly, the votes of the electors shall be by ballot.

SEC. 8. At all elections of officers of the State, or members of the General Assembly, the electors shall be privileged from arrest during their attendance upon, and going to, and returning from the same, on any civil process.

SEC. 9. The meetings of the electors for the election of the several State officers by law annually to be elected, and members of the General Assembly of this State, shall be holden on the first Monday of April in each year.‡

ARTICLE SEVENTH.

OF RELIGION.

SECTION 1. It being the duty of all men to worship the Supreme Being, the Great Creator and Preserver of the Universe, and their right to render that worship in the mode most consistent with the dictates of their consciences, no person shall by law be compelled to join or support, nor be classed with, or associated to, any congregation, church, or religious association. But every person now belonging to such congregation, church, or religious association, shall remain a member thereof until he shall have separated himself therefrom in the manner hereinafter provided. And each and every society or denomination of Christians in this State shall have and enjoy the same and equal powers, rights, and privileges; and shall have power and authority to support and maintain the ministers or teachers of their respective denominations, and to build and repair houses for public worship by a tax on the members of any such society only, to be laid by a major vote of the legal voters assembled at any society meeting, warned and held according to law, or in any other manner.

SEC. 2. If any person shall choose to separate himself from the society or denomination of Christians to which he may belong, and shall leave a written notice thereof with the clerk of such society, he shall thereupon be no longer liable for any future expenses which may be incurred by said society.

ARTICLE EIGHTH.

OF EDUCATION.

SECTION 1. The charter of Yale College, as modified by agreement with the corporation thereof, in pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly, passed in May, 1792, is hereby confirmed.

SEC. 2. The fund called the SCHOOL FUND shall remain a perpetual fund, the interest of which shall be inviolably appropriated to the support and encouragement of the public or common schools throughout the State, and for the equal benefit of all the people thereof. The value and amount of said fund shall, as soon as practicable, be ascertained in such manner as the General Assembly may prescribe, published, and recorded in the Comptroller's office, and no law shall ever be made authorizing said fund to be diverted to any other use than the encouragement and support of public or common schools, among the several school societies, as justice and equity shall require.

ARTICLE NINTH.

OF IMPEACHMENTS.

SECTION 1. The House of Representatives shall have the sole power of impeaching.

SEC. 2. All impeachments shall be tried by the Senate. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. No person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. When the Governor is impeached, the Chief Justice shall preside.

SEC. 3. The Governor, and all other executive and judicial officers, shall be liable to impeachment; but judgments in such cases shall not extend further than to removal from office and disqualification to hold any office of honor, trust, or profit under this State. The party convicted shall, nevertheless, be liable and subject to indictment, trial, and punishment according to law.

SEC. 4. Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. No conviction of treason or attainder shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture.

ARTICLE TENTH.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

SECTION 1. Members of the General Assembly, and all officers, executive and judicial, shall, before they enter on the duties of their respective offices, take the following oath or affirmation, to wit:

You do solemnly swear, or affirm (as the case may be), that you will support the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Connecticut, so long as you continue a citizen thereof; and that you will faithfully discharge, according to law, the duties of the office of to the best of your abilities. So help you God.

SEC. 2. Each town shall annually elect selectmen, and such officers of local police as the laws may prescribe.

SEC. 3. The rights and duties of all corporations shall remain as if this Constitution had not been adopted; with the exception of such regulations and restrictions as are contained in this Constitution. All judicial and civil officers now in office, who have been appointed by the General Assembly, and commissioned according to law, and all such officers as shall be appointed by the said Assembly, and commissioned as aforesaid, before the first Wednesday of May next, shall continue to hold their offices until the first day of June next, unless they shall before that time resign, or be removed from office according to law. The Treasurer and Secretary shall continue in office until a Treasurer and Secretary shall be appointed under this Constitution. All military officers shall continue to hold and exercise their respective offices until they shall resign or be removed according to law. All laws not contrary to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this Constitution shall remain in force until they shall expire by their own limitation, or shall be altered or repealed by the General Assembly, in pursuance of this Constitution. The validity of all bonds, debts, contracts, as well of individuals as of bodies corporate, or the State, of all suits, actions, or rights of action, both in law and equity, shall continue as if no change had taken place. The Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, and General Assembly, which is to be formed in October next, shall have and possess all the powers and authorities not repugnant to, or inconsistent with, this Constitution, which they now have and possess, until the first Wednesday of May next.

SEC. 4. No judge of the Superior Court, or of the Supreme Court of Errors; no member of Congress; no person holding any office under the authority of the United States; no person holding the office of Treasurer, Secretary, or Comptroller; no sheriff, or sheriff's deputy shall be a member of the General Assembly.

ARTICLE ELEVENTH.

OF AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Whenever a majority of the House of Representatives shall deem it necessary to alter or amend this Constitution, they may propose such alteration and amendments; which proposed amendments shall be continued to the next General Assembly, and be published with the laws which may have been passed at the same session; and if two-thirds of each House, at the next session of said Assembly, shall approve the amendments proposed, by yeas and nays, said amendment shall, by the Secretary, be transmitted to the town clerk in each town in the State, whose duty it shall be to present the same to the inhabitants thereof, for their consideration, at a town meeting, legally warned and held for that purpose; and if it shall appear, in a manner to be provided by law, that a majority of the electors present at such meetings shall have approved such amendments, the same shall be valid, to all intents and purposes, as a part of this Constitution.

Done in Convention, on the fifteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States the forty-third.

By order of the Convention,

OLIV: WOLCOTT, President.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1828.

From and after the first Wednesday of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty, the Senate of this State shall consist of not less than eighteen nor more than twenty-four members, and be chosen by districts.

ARTICLE II.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1828.

The General Assembly, which shall be holden on the first Wednesday of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine, shall divide the State into districts for the choice of Senators, and shall determine what number shall be elected in each; which districts shall not be less than eight nor more than twenty-four in number, and shall always be composed of contiguous territory, and in forming them no town shall be divided, nor shall the whole or part of one county be joined to the whole or part of another county to form a district: regard being had to the population in said apportionment, and in forming said districts, in such manner that no county shall have less than two senators. The districts, when established, shall continue the same until the session of the General Assembly next after the completion of the next census of the United States; which said Assembly shall have power to alter the same, if found necessary, to preserve a proper equality between said districts, in respect to the number of inhabitants therein, according to the principles above recited; after which said district shall not be altered, nor the number of Senators altered, except at any session of the General Assembly next after the completion of a census of the United States, and then only according to the principles above described.

ARTICLE III.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1828.

At the meeting of the electors on the first Monday of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, and annually thereafter, immediately after the choice of Representatives, the electors qualified by law to vote in the choice of such Representatives shall be called upon by the presiding officer in such meeting, in the several towns within their districts, respectively, to bring in their ballots for such person or number of persons to be Senator or Senators for such districts in the next General Assembly, as shall by law be allowed to such districts respectively; * which person or persons at the time of holding such meetings shall belong to and reside in the respective districts in which they shall be so balloted for, as aforesaid: And each elector present at such meeting, qualified as aforesaid, may thereupon bring in his ballot or suffrage for such person or persons as he shall choose to be Senators for such district, not exceeding the number by law allowed to the same, with the name or names of such person or persons fairly written on one piece of paper.* And the votes so given shall be received, counted, canvassed, and declared in the same manner now provided by the Constitution for the choice of Senators. The person or persons, not exceeding the number by law allowed to the districts in which such votes shall be given in, having the highest number of votes, shall be declared to be duly elected for such districts: But in the event of an equality of votes between two or more of the persons so voted for, the House of Representatives shall, in the manner provided for by the Constitution, designate which of such person or persons shall be declared to be duly elected.

ARTICLE IV.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1832.

There shall annually † be chosen and appointed a Lieutenant-Governor, a Treasurer, and Secretary, in the same manner as is provided in the second section of the fourth article of the Constitution of this State, for the choice and appointment of a Governor.

ARTICLE V.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1836.

A Comptroller of Public Accounts shall be annually † chosen by the electors, at their meeting in April, and in the same manner as the Treasurer and Secretary are chosen, and the votes for Comptroller shall be returned to, counted, canvassed, and declared by the Treasurer and Secretary.

ARTICLE VI.

ADOPTED NOVEMBER, 1836.

The electors in the respective towns, on the first Monday of April † in each year, may vote for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Treasurer, Secretary, Senators, and Representatives in the General Assembly successively, or for any number of said officers at the same time, and the General Assembly shall have power to enact laws regulating and prescribing the order and manner of voting for said officers, and also providing for the election of Representatives at some time subsequent to the first Monday of April in all cases when it shall so happen that the electors in any town shall fail on that day to elect the Representative or Representatives to which such town shall be by law entitled: provided, that in all elections of officers of the State, or members of the General Assembly, the votes of the electors shall be by ballot, either written or printed.

* Altered by amendment of 1836.

† Altered by amendments of 1875.

ARTICLE VII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1838.

A sheriff shall be appointed in each county by the electors therein, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law, who shall hold his office for three years,* removable by the General Assembly, and shall become bound with sufficient sureties to the Treasurer of the State for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

ARTICLE VIII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1845.

Every white † male citizen of the United States, who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, who shall have resided in this State for a term of one year next preceding, and in the town in which he may offer himself to be admitted to the privileges of an elector, at least six months next preceding the time he may so offer himself, ‡ and shall sustain a good moral character, shall, on his taking such oath as may be prescribed by law, be an elector.

ARTICLE IX.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1850.

The Judges of Probate shall be appointed by the electors residing in the several probate districts, and qualified to vote for Representatives therein, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE X.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1850.

The Justices of the Peace for the several towns in this State shall be appointed by the electors in such towns; and the time and manner of their election, the number for each town, and the period for which they shall hold their offices, shall be prescribed by law.

ARTICLE XI.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1855.

Every person shall be able to read any article of the Constitution, or any section of the Statutes of this State, before being admitted an elector.

* Altered by amendment of 1886.

† Altered by amendments of 1876.

‡ Altered by amendments of 1855.

ARTICLE XII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1856.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of Errors, and of the Superior Court, appointed in the year 1855, and thereafter, shall hold their offices for the term of eight years, but may be removed by impeachment; and the Governor shall also remove them on the address of two-thirds of each House of the General Assembly. No Judge of the Supreme Court of Errors, or of the Superior Court, shall be capable of holding office after he shall arrive at the age of seventy years.

ARTICLE XIII.

ADOPTED AUGUST, 1864.

[Every elector of this State who shall be in the military service of the United States, either as a drafted person or volunteer, during the present rebellion, shall when absent from this State, because of such service, have the same right to vote in any election of State officers, Representatives in Congress, and electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, as he would have if present at the time appointed for such election, in the town in which he resided at the time of his enlistment into such service. This provision shall in no case extend to persons in the regular army of the United States, and shall cease and become inoperative and void upon the termination of the present war.

The General Assembly shall prescribe, by law, in what manner and at what time the votes of electors absent from this State, in the military service of the United States, shall be received, counted, returned, and canvassed.]*

ARTICLE XIV.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1873.

All annual and special sessions of the General Assembly shall, on and after the first Wednesday of May, A. D. 1875, be held at Hartford, but the person administering the office of Governor may, in case of special emergency, convene said Assembly at any other place in this State.

ARTICLE XV.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1874.

The House of Representatives shall consist of electors residing in towns from which they are elected. Every town which now contains, or hereafter shall contain, a population of five thousand, shall be entitled to send two representatives, and every other one shall be entitled to its present representation in the General Assembly. The population of each town shall be determined by the enumeration made under the authority of the census of the United States next before the election of Representatives is held.

---

* Now inoperative.

ARTICLE XVI.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1875.

SECTION 1. A general election for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Comptroller, and members of the General Assembly, shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and annually thereafter, for such officers as are herein and may be hereafter prescribed.*

SEC. 2. The State officers above named, and the Senators from those districts having even numbers, elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected biennially thereafter on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, shall respectively hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January. The Senators from those districts having odd numbers elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, shall hold their offices for one year from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of January, 1877; the electors residing in the senatorial districts having odd numbers shall, on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1877, and biennially thereafter, elect Senators who shall hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January. The Representatives elected from the several towns on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected annually thereafter, shall hold their offices for one year from and after the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January.*

SEC. 3. There shall be a stated session of the General Assembly in Hartford on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877, and annually* thereafter on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January.

SEC. 4. The persons who shall be severally elected to the State offices and General Assembly on the first Monday of April, 1876, shall hold such offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877.

SEC. 5. The General Assembly elected in April, 1876, shall have power to pass such laws as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this amendment.

ARTICLE XVII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1875.

The General Assembly shall have power, by a vote of two-thirds of the members of both branches, to restore the privileges of an elector to those who may have forfeited the same by a conviction of crime.

ARTICLE XVIII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1876.

In case a new town shall hereafter be incorporated, such new town shall not be entitled to a Representative in the General Assembly unless it has at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, and unless the town from which the major portion of its territory is taken has also at least twenty five hundred inhabitants; but until such towns shall each have at least twenty-five hundred inhabitants, such new town shall, for the purpose of representation in the General Assembly, be attached to and be deemed to be a part of, the town from which the major portion of its territory is taken, and it shall be an election district of such town for the purpose of representation in the House of Representatives.

ARTICLE XIX.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1876.

The provisions of Section 2, Article IV of the Constitution, and of the amendments thereto, shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to all elections held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and annually thereafter.

ARTICLE XX.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1876.

Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas, and of the District Courts, shall be appointed for terms of four years. Judges of the City Courts and Police Courts shall be appointed for terms of two years.

ARTICLE XXI.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1876.

Judges of Probate shall be elected by the electors residing in their respective districts on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and biennially thereafter. Those persons elected Judges of Probate on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1876, and those elected biennially thereafter, shall hold their offices for two years from and after the Wednesday after the first Monday of the next succeeding January. Those persons elected Judges of Probate on the first Monday of April, 1876, shall hold their offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1877.

ARTICLE XXII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1876.

The compensation of members of the General Assembly shall not exceed three hundred dollars per annum. and one mileage each way for each session, at the rate of twenty-five cents per mile.*

ARTICLE XXIII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1876.

That Article VIII of the amendments to the Constitution be amended by erasing the word "white" from the first line.

---

* Altered by amendment of 1884.

ARTICLE XXIV.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1877.

Neither the General Assembly nor any County, City, Borough, Town, or School District shall have power to pay or grant any extra compensation to any public officer, employe, agent, or servant, or increase the compensation of any public officer or employe, to take effect during the continuance in office of any person whose salary might be increased thereby, or increase the pay or compensation of any public contractor above the amount specified in the contract.

ARTICLE XXV.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1877.

No County, City, Town, Borough, or other municipality shall ever subscribe to the capital stock of any railroad corporation, or become a purchaser of the bonds, or make donation to, or loan its credit, directly or indirectly, in aid of any such corporation; but nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any bonds or debts incurred under existing laws, nor be construed to prohibit the General Assembly from authorizing any Town or City to protect, by additional appropriations of money or credit, any railroad debt contracted prior to the adoption of this amendment.

ARTICLE XXVI.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1880.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of Errors, and of the Superior Court, shall, upon nomination of the Governor, be appointed by the General Assembly, in such manner as shall by law be prescribed.

ARTICLE XXVII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1884.

SECTION 1. A general election for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary, Treasurer, Comptroller, and members of the General Assembly, shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1886, and biennially thereafter for such officers as are herein and may be hereafter, prescribed.

SEC. 2. The State officers above named, and members of the General Assembly, elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1886, and those elected biennially thereafter on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, shall hold their respective offices from the Wednesday following the first Monday of the next succeeding January until the Wednesday after the first Monday of the third succeeding January, and until their successors are duly qualified.

SEC. 3. The compensation of members of the General Assembly shall not exceed three hundred dollars for the term for which they are elected, and one mileage each way for the regular session, at the rate of twenty-five cents per mile; they shall also receive one mileage, at the same rate for attending any extra session called by the Governor.

SEC. 4. The regular sessions of the General Assembly shall commence on the Wednesday following the first Monday of the January next succeeding the election of its members.

SEC. 5. The Senators elected on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1885, shall hold their offices only until the Wednesday after the first Monday of January, 1887.

ARTICLE XXVIII.

ADOPTED OCTOBER, 1886.

Sheriffs shall be elected in the several counties, on the Tuesday after the first Monday of November, 1886, and quadrennially thereafter, for the term of four years, commencing on the first day of June following their election.

RULES TO REGULATE

The Proceedings of the Senate

OF CONNECTICUT.

Resolved, That the Rules and Orders following be, and they are hereby, adopted as the standing Rules and Orders of the Senate, and they shall be read at the commencement of each session of the General Assembly by the Clerk.

1st. The President shall take the chair every day, at the hour to which the Senate shall have adjourned, and after prayer shall immediately call the Senate to order, and if a quorum be present, proceed to business. In case the President, or in his absence the President pro tempore wishes to leave the chair from indisposition or other cause, he may designate a senator to perform the duties of the chair for a period not exceeding one day at one time.

2d. The President shall preserve order, and decide questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Senate. He shall rise to put a question, but may state it sitting. The question first moved and seconded shall be the first put, and in all cases the sense of the Senate shall be taken upon the largest number or sum, and the longest time proposed.

3d. No member shall in any way interrupt the business of the Senate while the Journal or public papers are in reading, nor when any member is speaking in debate, nor while the President is putting the question.

4th. When any member is about to speak in debate, or deliver any matter to the Senate, he shall rise and respectfully address "Mr. President"; if two or more rise at once, the President shall name the member who is first to speak.

5th. No member shall speak more than twice upon the same question, without leave of the Senate, unless to explain.

6th. When a question is before the Senate, no motion shall be received but to adjourn, table, postpone indefinitely, postpone to a certain date, commit, amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged, and a motion for adjournment shall always be in order, and be decided without debate.

7th. If the question in debate contains several points, any member may have the same divided.

8th. When the yeas and nays shall be called for by one-fifth of the members present, each member called upon shall (unless by special reason he be excused by the Senate) declare openly his assent or dissent to the question.

9th. When a motion is made and seconded, it shall be stated to the Senate by the President, before any debate be had thereon; but every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the President so direct, or any member desire it.

10th. Every bill and joint resolution shall be introduced by a motion for leave, or by order of the Senate, or the report of a committee, and every bill for a public act and every joint resolution shall receive three several readings in the Senate, previously to its being passed into an act. And no such bill or joint resolution shall be read twice on the same day, without the order of the Senate, except bills or joint resolutions originating with any committee, or reported by a committee as substitutes, which may receive the first and second readings on the same day. And the President shall not state the same to the Senate for debate until the second reading.

11th. A committee of three, shall within the first two days of each session, be appointed to take into consideration all contested elections of members of the Senate, and to report the facts in issue, together with their opinion thereon.

12th. Committees of Conference shall be appointed by the Senate.

13th. All other committees shall be appointed by resolution by the Senate, unless the Senate shall otherwise order.

14th. When a motion has been stated by the President or read by the Clerk, it shall be considered to be in possession of the Senate, but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment; but not after amendment, unless the Senate give leave.

15th. No member who is interested in the decision of any question in such manner that he cannot vote may stay in the Senate when such question is discussed or decided; provided, however, that this rule shall not extend to the sitting members in contested elections.

16th. When any member shall request a Committee of Conference on different votes of the two Houses of Assembly, a committee consisting of one member, who was in the vote of the Senate, shall be appointed; and if any member who was not in such vote shall be nominated, he shall notify the Senate.

17th. When the Senate has voted to appoint a committee to prepare a bill or resolve, upon any subject, no person shall be on such committee who was opposed to the vote of the Senate.

18th. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, shall transgress the rules of the Senate, the President shall, and any member may, call him to order, and if speaking, he shall sit down, unless permitted to explain; the Senate, if appealed to, shall decide the question without debate.

19th. When a question shall have been once decided, it shall be in order for any member of the majority to move for a reconsideration thereof; but no such motion shall be made unless within three days of actual session of the Senate, after the day on which the decision to be reconsidered was made.

20th. Before any petition or memorial address to the Senate shall be received and read at the table, whether the same shall be introduced by the President or a member, a brief statement of the contents or object of the petition or memorial shall be verbally made by the introducer.

21st. All questions shall be put by the President of the Senate, and all Senators shall signify their assent or dissent by answering, viva voce, aye or no. And whenever the vote shall be doubted or questioned it shall be determined by the members rising, and in all cases the ayes shall be first called.

22d. Every resolution or bill granting money from the treasury of the State shall, before its final passage, receive three several readings, only one of which shall be on the same day, except bills or resolutions originating with any committee or reported by a committee as substitutes, which may receive the first and second readings on the same day.

23d. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a calendar, on which he shall enter daily all bills and joint resolutions received from the House of Representatives for the action of the Senate, except the bills and joint resolutions which have not been referred by the Senate to any committee, and all bills and joint resolutions reported to the Senate from any committee; and these shall be entered on the calendar in the order in which they are reported; and no bill or joint resolution received from the House of Representatives or reported from a committee shall be considered and acted upon until it is reached in its regular order on the calendar, and all bills and resolutions shall remain upon the calendar one day before the same shall be starred for action.

All bills and joint resolutions shall be entitled to be considered and acted upon when reached in their regular order on the calendar, and any bill or joint resolution not considered and acted upon in its regular order shall be placed at the foot of the calendar, unless the consideration of the same be by majority of the Senators present made the order of the day for some specified day named in the resolution.

24th. It shall be the duty of the Clerk of the Senate to keep a record of all petitions, resolutions, joint resolutions, and bills for public acts which are presented for the consideration of the Senate; and said record shall be so kept as to show by one and a single reference thereto, the action of the Senate on any specified petition, resolution, joint resolution, or bill for a public act, up to the time of such reference.

RULES
OF THE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
OF THE
STATE OF CONNECTICUT.

---

TOUCHING THE DUTY OF THE SPEAKER.

1. The Speaker shall take the chair every day, at the hour to which the House shall have adjourned; he shall immediately call the House to order, and after prayers and roll-call, if a quorum be present, proceed to business.

2. In the absence of a quorum, the Speaker may adjourn the House to the afternoon, or to the next sitting day. At all other times during the session an adjournment shall be pronounced by the Speaker on motion.

3. He shall preserve order and decorum; and shall decide all questions of order, upon which no debate shall be allowed except at his request, and his decision shall be subject to an appeal to the House, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once.

4. He shall rise to put a question or to address the House, but may read sitting.

5. In case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct in the galleries, lobby, or aisles of the House, the Speaker shall have power to order the same to be cleared.

6. In case the Speaker wishes to leave the chair for the purpose of taking part in the debate, or from indisposition, or other cause, he may designate a member to perform the duties of the chair, for a period not exceeding two days at one time.

7. In case the Speaker, or the member named by him in accordance with the preceding rule, is absent at the hour to which the House stands adjourned, the Clerk shall call the House to order, at the hour to which the House stands adjourned, and the first business in order shall be the election of a Speaker pro tempore, which it shall immediately proceed to do without debate, by nomination or ballot, as the House shall determine; these questions shall also be decided without debate; and the Speaker pro tempore thus elected shall preside in the House and discharge all the duties of the Speaker until his return. In case of the death or resignation of a Speaker, the Clerk shall call the House to order as provided in the first clause of this rule, and the first business in order shall be the election of a speaker by ballot, which the House shall immediately proceed to do without debate, and the Speaker thus elected shall preside over the House and discharge all the duties of the Speaker during the continuance of the General Assembly.

OF THE CLERKS.

8. The Clerk shall keep a Journal of the House, and shall enter therein a record of each day's proceedings, and record any amendment that may be offered to any bill or resolution, provided such amendment be adopted, or a record of the same be requested by the member offering the same.

9. He shall keep a Calendar, on which he shall enter daily (1) all bills and joint resolutions received from the Senate for the action of the House, except bills and joint resolutions which have not been referred by the House to any committee; and (2) all bills and resolutions reported to the House from any committee; and these shall be entered on the calendar in the order in which they are reported; and no bill or resolution received from the Senate, or reported from a committee, shall be considered and acted upon until it is reached in its regular order upon the calendar. Any bill or resolution not considered and acted upon in the regular order shall be placed at the foot of the calendar, unless the consideration of the same be, by vote of two-thirds of the members present, made the order of the day for some specified time.

10. The Clerk shall retain all bills, resolutions, and other papers, in reference to which any member has a right to move a reconsideration, until the right of reconsideration has expired, and no longer.

11. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to keep a record of all petitions, resolutions, joint resolutions, and bills for public acts which may be presented for consideration of the House, and said record shall be so kept as to show by one and a single reference thereto the action of the House on any specific petition, resolution, joint resolution, or bill for a public act up to the time of such reference.

12. The Assistant Clerk shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as the Clerk, subject to the direction of the Clerk.

13. The Clerk shall cause the Journals and Calendars to be distributed on the desks of members daily, before the opening of the session.

MEMBERS.

14. When any member is about to speak in debate or deliver any matter to the House, he shall rise and address the chair as "Mr. Speaker." If two or more shall rise at the same time, the Speaker shall name the member entitled to the floor, preferring one who rises in his place to one who does not.

15. No member shall speak on the same question more than twice without leave of the House.

16. No member who is interested in the decision of any question in such a manner that he cannot vote, may stay in the House when such a question is discussed or decided.

17. Every member present, when a question is put by the Speaker, shall vote, unless excused by the House. And no member shall absent himself from the House without leave, unless there be a quorum without his presence.

18. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgress the Rules and Orders of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call him to order; and, if speaking, he shall sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if a member is guilty of a breach of any of the Rules and Orders, he may be required by the House, on motion, to make satisfaction therefor, and, until he has done so, he shall not be allowed to vote or speak, except by way of excuse.

19. For the purpose of more conveniently counting upon the division of the House, the floor thereof shall be divided by aisles into four divisions, to be numbered first, second, third, and fourth sections, commencing on the right of the chair; for each of which divisions the Speaker shall appoint a member whose seat is in said division, to be a teller to count and report to the chair.

COMMITTEES.

20. At the opening of each session a Committee of Elections, consisting of three members, shall be appointed by the Speaker, to take into consideration all contested elections of the members of the House, and report facts, with their opinion thereon.

21. All committees, except committees of conference, shall be appointed by the Speaker, unless otherwise specially directed by the House, and the member first named shall be chairman.

22. No member shall serve on any committee while considering any question involving his private right distinct from the public interest.

23. When any member requests a committee of conference on disagreeing votes of the two Houses, a committee, consisting of two members, shall be appointed on the part of the House; and in such case the committee shall consist only of such members as were in the vote of the House; and if any member be nominated on said committee who was not in the vote, he shall notify the House, and be excused.

BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS.

24. Every bill or joint resolution shall be introduced by motion for leave, or by order of the House, or by the report of a committee; and every public bill or joint resolution shall receive three several readings in the House previously to its being passed into an act, and no such bill or joint resolution shall be read twice on the same day, except that bills or joint resolutions originating with any committee or reported by a committee as substitutes may receive the first and second readings on the same day; every member offering such bill or resolution shall indorse thereon its object, and the Speaker may not offer any bill or resolution to the House until after its first reading, and every bill or resolution may be referred on its first reading.

25. The first reading of a bill or resolution shall be by its title, unless the House otherwise orders.

If opposition be made, the question shall be "Shall this bill be rejected?" If no opposition be made, or if the question to reject be negatived, the bill or resolution shall go to its second reading without a question.

26. Every resolution or bill granting money from the treasury of the State, shall, before its final passage, receive three several readings in the House, only one of which shall be on the same day.

REGULAR ORDER OF BUSINESS.

27. The order of business shall be as follows, viz.:

1. Reception of petitions.
2. Reception of communications from the Governor and annual reports.
3. Introduction of resolutions.
4. Introduction and first reading of bills.
5. Reports of committees.
6. Reception of business from the Senate.
7. Business on the calendar.
8. Miscellaneous business.

VOTING.

28. In all cases when a vote is taken without a division, the Speaker shall determine whether it is or is not a vote; and in all doubtful cases he shall ask "Is it doubted?" If the vote be doubted by a member, rising in his place for that purpose, it shall be tried again. If the Speaker shall doubt the vote, or a division be called for, the House shall divide, those in the affirmative first rising from their seats and standing until counted, and afterwards those in the negative. After the Speaker has declared a vote, it shall not be recalled unless by a regular motion for reconsideration, made by a member in the vote of the House.

29. In all cases of balloting the Speaker shall vote; in other cases he shall not vote unless the House be equally divided, or unless his vote, if given in the minority, will make the division equal. And in case of such equal division the question shall be lost.

MOTIONS.

30. When a motion is made it shall be stated to the House by the Speaker before any debate be had thereon; but every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Speaker so direct, or any member desire it.

31. When a motion is stated by the Speaker, or read by the Clerk, it shall be deemed to be in the possession of the House; but may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, but not after amendment, unless the House give leave.

32. The question first moved shall be first put, except as modified by rule 33; and in all cases the sense of the House shall be taken first upon the largest number or sum, and the longest time proposed, in any question.

33. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received except

1. To adjourn.
2. To lay on the table.
3. For the previous question.
4. To postpone indefinitely.
5. To close the debate at a specified time.
6. To postpone to a time certain.
7. To commit or recommit.
8. To amend.
9. To continue to the next General Assembly.

Which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged in this rule, and no motion to lay on the table, commit or recommit, to continue to next General Assembly, or to postpone indefinitely, having been once decided, shall be again allowed at the same sitting, and at the same stage of the bill or subject matter.

34. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except while a vote is being taken, and no motion to adjourn or lay on the table shall be debatable.

35. No debate shall be allowed after a question is put and remains undecided.

36. The yeas and nays shall be taken on any question and entered on the Journal, at the desire of one-fifth of the members present, at any time before a declaration of the vote.

When the yeas and nays are taken the roll of the House shall be called by Counties, in the following order, viz.: Hartford, New Haven, New London, Fairfield, Windham, Litchfield, Middlesex, and Tolland.

RECONSIDERATION.

37. A vote simply of reference to a committee can be reconsidered only on the day of the vote, and any other vote can be reconsidered only on the day of the vote or the next succeeding session day; provided, there has been no intervening action on the same matter by the Senate; and further provided, that there shall be no reconsideration of the vote upon either of the following motions: to adjourn, for the previous question, or to reconsider, and no question shall be twice reconsidered.

APPEAL.

38. No appeal from the decision of the Speaker shall be entertained unless it is seconded; and no other business shall be in order until the question on the appeal has been disposed of.

SEATS.

39. Immediately after the appointment of the Joint Standing Committees, a Committee of three shall be appointed, who shall assign seats to Chairmen of all Joint Standing Committees, and of all Select Committees of the House, then to the senior member of the House, and the oldest member of the House, who is not a senior member, and shall then supervise the drawing of the other seats, which shall be had while the House is in session.

40. The seat assigned to any member, or drawn by him, shall be his seat for the year, unless an exchange is made, and notice thereof given to the Clerk within five days from the day of drawing.

REPRESENTATIVE CHAMBER.

41. Use of the Representatives' Chamber shall not be granted except by a vote of the House.

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE.

42. The rules of parliamentary practice shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with these rules or the joint rules of the two branches.

43. No rule shall be suspended except by a vote of at least two-thirds of the members present.

44. Persons other than members of the General Assembly and State officials, who desire to speak with members of this House while it is in session, shall communicate their desire so to do to such member through one of the messengers, and shall not converse with such member in the Hall of the House while the House is in session.

Proper facilities for transmitting the messages above referred to shall be provided by the clerk and administered by the messengers.

The messengers and doorkeepers shall see that the aisles and the seats of members are not occupied by persons other than members of the General Assembly, to the disturbance of the members or without their permission.

45. Whenever any vote is to be taken by ballot, the Speaker may, upon directing the collection of ballots, order the doors closed, and thereupon no member shall leave the House, unless by permission of the Speaker, or the House, until the vote is declared. But members shall be admitted at any time.

Upon the ballot being counted, if any member shall raise a question of an excess of ballots, over the number of members present, a count of the House shall be had, and if it shall appear that such excess of ballots exists, the Speaker shall order the vote to be again taken.

JOINT RULES

OF THE

SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OF CONNECTICUT.

I. Immediately after the organization of the Senate and House of Representatives, at the commencement of every stated session of the General Assembly, a Joint Committee, consisting of three Senators and eight Representatives, shall be appointed to examine the returns and canvass of votes given by the electors for Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Treasurer Secretary, and Comptroller of Public Accounts, and to report the names of the persons whom they shall find elected to those offices respectively. After this report shall have been accepted, a Joint Committee, consisting of one Senator and two Representatives, shall be appointed, to inform the Governor personally of his election and of the organization of the two houses, and their readiness to receive his communications.

II. On or before the third day of every stated session of the General Assembly there shall be appointed twenty-four Joint Standing Committees, each of which shall consist of one Senator and eight Representatives, except the Committee on Engrossed Bills, which shall consist of two Senators and two Representatives, one from the majority and one from the minority in each house.

1st. A Committee on the Judiciary, who shall take into consideration all such matters touching public or private acts and judicial proceedings, as shall be referred to them, and report their opinion thereon, together with such propositions relative thereto as to them shall seem expedient.

2d. A Committee on the School Fund, who shall inquire into and report the actual state of the School Fund, the amount, value, and condition of its securities, and recommend such measures as they shall deem best adapted to secure its improvement and permanent safety.

3d. A Committee on Banks, who shall take into consideration all such matters relative to Banks, Savings Banks, and Savings and Building Associations, as may be referred to them, and report the facts, with their opinion thereon.

4th. A Committee on the State Prison, who shall examine the annual reports of the directors and officers in charge of the State Prison, the account of receipts and expenditures of the institution, together with such other matters as shall be referred to them by the two Houses of the General Assembly. And they may recommend such measures for the regulation and management of the Prison as they shall deem expedient.

5th. A Committee on New Towns and Probate Districts, who shall take into consideration all matters relating to the incorporation of new towns, the alteration of town lines, and the formation of probate districts, which shall be referred to them, and report their opinion thereon, together with the facts upon which such opinion is founded.

6th. A Committee on Roads, Bridges, and Rivers, who shall take into consideration all such matters relative to roads, bridges, and rivers, as shall be referred to them, and report the facts, with their opinion thereon.

7th. A Committee on Incorporations, who shall take into consideration all matters relative to private corporations, for which there may be no other appropriate committee, and report their opinion thereon, with the facts on which the same is founded.

8th. A Committee on Claims, who shall take into consideration all claims and demands upon the State which may be referred to them, and report their opinion thereon, with the facts on which the same is founded.

9th. A Committee on Education, who shall take into consideration all such matters relating to the subject of common school education as shall be referred to them, and recommend such measures touching the same as they shall deem expedient.

10th. A Committee on the Sale of Lands, who shall take into consideration all applications for the sale of lands which shall be referred to them, and report the facts, with their opinion thereon.

11th. A Committee on Finance, who shall take into consideration the financial concerns of the State, and inquire into the receipts and expenditures of the government, the investment of the public funds (the School Fund excepted), the system of assessment and taxation provided by existing laws, and all other matters affecting the revenues of the State; and report such measures touching the same as they may deem expedient.

12th. A Committee on Railroads, who shall take into consideration all matters relating to steam, electric, and cable railroads and railroad companies which may be referred to them, and report the facts, with their opinion thereon.

13th. A Committee on Military Affairs, who shall examine all military returns, and take into consideration all matters relating to the militia of this State which may be referred to them, and report thereon, with their opinion touching the same.

14th. A Committee on Agriculture, who shall take into consideration all such matters relating to agriculture as may be referred to them, and report thereon, with their opinion touching the same.

15th. A Committee on Humane Institutions, who shall take into consideration all such matters relating to the Benevolent Institutions under the care or supervision of the State as may be referred to them, and report thereon, with their opinion touching the same.

16th. A Committee on Cities and Boroughs, who shall take into consideration all such matters relating to cities and boroughs as may be referred to them, and report the facts, and their opinion thereon.

17th. A Committee on Fisheries, who shall take into consideration all such matters relating to fisheries as may be referred to them, and report the facts, and their opinion thereon in the matter.

18th. A Committee on Insurance, who shall take into consideration all matters relating to insurance that may be referred to them, and report the facts, and their opinion thereon.

19th. A Committee on Manufactures, who shall take into consideration all matters relating to manufactures that may be referred to them, and report their opinion thereon.

20th. A Committee on Appropriations, who shall take into consideration and carefully investigate all estimates of State expenditures, and all bills and resolutions appropriating money from the State Treasury which shall be submitted to them, and shall from time to time report such appropriation bills as they may deem necessary for carrying on the different departments of the State Government, and providing for such institutions and persons as may properly receive State aid under existing laws, for one year, from the following thirtieth of June, and also shall have power to originate and report bills, whenever such bills shall be in the interest of economy.

21st. A Committee on Labor, to whom shall be referred the Report of the Bureau of Labor Statistics and other matters relating to the special interests of labor.

22d. A Committee on Engrossed Bills, whose duty it shall be to examine the engrossed copy of each bill for a public act, and of each joint resolution for a special act which has been passed by both houses, and to verify it, upon finding it to be a correct copy of the bill or joint resolution, and of the amendments, if any, as it was passed; and no engrossed copy of any bill for a public act, or of any joint resolution for a special act, shall be certified by the officers of either house as having been passed, until it has first been verified by the signatures of at least three members of the committee

23d. A Committee on Temperance, who shall take into consideration all such matters relating to licensing and regulating the sale of spirituous and intoxicating liquors as may be referred to them, and report thereon with their opinion touching the same

24th. A Committee on Forfeited Rights, who shall take into consideration such applications as may be referred to them for the restoration of the privileges of electors to those who may have forfeited the same by a conviction of crime, and report the facts with their opinion thereon.

III. In all meetings of Joint Committees the Senator shall preside. All questions of order and other proceedings, and questions relative to evidence, shall be determined by a majority of votes.

IV. All committees of Conference, on disagreeing votes of the two Houses of Assembly, shall consist of one Senator and two Representatives, who were in the major vote of their respective Houses. The Committee of the House making the grant or appointment, or passing the bill, resolution, or amendment disagreed to, shall state their reasons, to be reported to the other House. And neither House shall request the other twice to confer on the same point of disagreement.

V. Whenever each House shall have adhered to its vote of disagreement, the bill or resolution shall be considered as lost.

VI. Every message sent from one House to the other shall be announced at the door, and shall be respectfully communicated to the Chair by the person by whom it may be sent.

VII. Whenever a bill shall have passed both Houses of the Assembly, and shall have been transmitted to the Governor for his approbation, if either House desire its return for further consideration, such desire shall be communicated by message to the other House, and a Joint Committee of one Senator and two Representatives shall then be sent to the Governor to request him to return the bill. If the Governor consent, the bill shall be returned first to that House in which the motion for its return originated, and the bill may then be altered or totally rejected by a concurrent vote of the two Houses; but if not altered or rejected by such concurrent vote, it shall be again transmitted to the Governor in the same form in which it was first presented to him.

VIII. Whenever the public business may require the Senate and House of Representatives to meet in Convention, either House may send its message to the other, requesting such Convention, and specifying the object. At the time designated, the Senate, with their President and Clerk, may proceed to the Hall of the House of Representatives, where suitable accommodations will be provided. The President of the Senate shall ex officio preside in said Convention, and the proceedings thereof shall be entered upon the Journals of the two Houses.

When the Convention shall have been dissolved, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall make reports to their respective Houses of the proceedings of the Convention.

IX. All bills for public acts which shall have been passed by both Houses of the General Assembly, engrossed, and signed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives and President of the Senate, and all bills for private acts and joint resolutions, which shall have been passed by the two Houses, shall, with the papers on which the same may be founded, be transmitted by the Committee on Engrossed Bills to the Secretary of State, for the purpose of being by him laid before the Governor. The presiding officers of the two Houses shall affix their signatures to all bills for public acts in the presence of one or more of the Engrossing Committee or the Secretary.

X. Every bill or resolution shall be written or printed without interlineation or erasure, on paper not smaller than a half-sheet of foolscap, and any member offering such bill, resolution, or a petition, shall endorse thereon his name in some conspicuous place. No bill or resolution shall, after it has been introduced, be altered either by addition or erasure. Any proposed changes in the proposed text of such bill or resolution which may be deemed advisable by the committee to whom it has been referred shall be reported in the form of amendments or of a substitute bill.

When a substitute bill is reported it shall be printed in lieu of the original bill or resolution; and when amendments are reported, they shall be printed in such a manner as to indicate that they are amendments.

It shall be the duty of the Clerk of Bills to examine all bills for public acts and resolutions, in respect to their form, before the same are reported favorably by the committee to whom they have been referred, and to endorse thereon the fact of such examination, and under direction of such committee to prepare such amendments or substitute bills or resolutions as may be deemed necessary or advisable, and he shall supervise the printing of bills and resolutions in accordance with the provisions of Section 412 of the General Statutes, and Rules XII and XIII. Whenever a bill or resolution, not bearing the endorsement herein required, shall be reported for printing, the Clerk of the Senate or House, as the case may be, shall immediately transmit the same to the Clerk of Bills for examination and endorsement.

XI. The Clerk of the House to which any bill shall be first presented shall endorse thereon a statement of the contents, or objects of such bill or resolution, before transmitting the same to the other House.

XII. All acts of incorporation by bill or resolution, and all acts in amendment or alteration thereof, and all private acts of whatever nature, shall, before the same shall be considered, be printed for the use of the General Assembly, at the expense of the party applying therefor.

XIII. All bills for public acts and joint resolutions reported favorably upon by the committee to which they have been or may be referred, with or without amendments, before being put upon their third reading, shall be laid upon the table, and five hundred copies of such bills and joint resolutions, with their amendments, shall be printed for the use of the General Assembly; and no bill or joint resolution so reported shall be put upon its third reading until the day succeeding the distribution of such copies.

XIV. All bills for public acts, and all joint resolutions for special acts, which have been passed by both Houses, shall, without action, be referred to the Committee on Engrossed Bills, and (in addition to the duties prescribed in Rule No. II) it shall be the duty of the committee, before any bill or joint resolution be engrossed, to immediately examine the same with a view to avoid repetitions, and to secure clearness, conciseness, and accuracy in the text, without changing the purport thereof. If the committee find that any correction should be made in the text or references, or in the title of any bill or joint resolution, they shall, within two session days after the passage thereof, report it back to the House which last took action upon it, with the proposed correction in the form of an amendment.

All reports from the Committee on Engrossed Bills shall be placed at the head of the calendar, and shall take precedence of all other business on the calendar; and the only question on the report of the committee shall be, "Shall the proposed amendment be adopted?"

If the proposed amendment be adopted by both Houses, the bill or resolution shall be transmitted to the Secretary, who shall cause it to be engrossed as amended. If the proposed amendment be rejected by either House, the bill or resolution shall not be transmitted to the other House, but shall be sent to the Secretary, who shall have it engrossed as it was passed.

If, in consequence of the final adjournment of the General Assembly, or for any other reason, any bill or resolution which has passed both Houses fails to be amended, as recommended by the committee, the bill or resolution shall be engrossed as it was passed.

XV. All bills for public acts and joint resolutions for special acts reported upon by any committee shall be first reported to the House in which they respectively originated; and any bill or joint resolution reported on adversely, if no objection is made, may, on motion of the member who introduced it, or at his request, be acted upon immediately. If the bill or resolution be not rejected, it shall then be entered upon the calendar to be acted upon in its regular order.

XVI. After the time has elapsed for the reconsideration of any vote, upon any petition, memorial, resolution, bill, or other matter, no resolution or motion to recall such petition, memorial, resolution, bill, or other matter, from the other House, shall be allowed, for the purpose of reconsideration or amendment, except when there has been a clear mistake in the vote or an error in the language of the resolution, or bill, or the motion or resolution relating to the petition, memorial, or other matter.

XVII. It shall be the duty of the chairman of each Joint Standing Committee to call a meeting of his committee for organization within one week after the appointment of such committee.

ORGANIZATION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

---

OPENING DAY.

The Senate and House of Representatives both meet on the Wednesday after the first Monday of January following the general election, at ten o'clock in the forenoon.

THE SENATE.

The Senate is called to order by the Secretary of state. Prayer may be offered immediately, or after the election of a President pro tempore.

The roll of Senators declared elected is then read by the Secretary, and the oath of office* administered by him to those present. Two temporary tellers are appointed and the Senate proceeds to ballot for a Clerk. The Secretary declares the result and administers the oath of office to the Clerk who calls upon the Senators to ballot for a President, pro tempore, and names two temporary tellers.

The Clerk having declared the result of the ballot, the President of the Senate takes the chair, addresses the Senate if he so choose, after which the official oath is administered to him by the Clerk.

Resolutions are then passed appointing a Chaplain, two Messengers, three Doorkeepers, and raising a Committee on Canvass of Votes for Senators. The canvass of votes as received from the Secretary's office is immediately referred to the committee, with instructions to report forthwith. After action upon the report of this committee and adoption of Senate rules, a committee may be appointed to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate is organized and ready to proceed with business.

Pending and subsequent to report by the committee ordinary business may be introduced. Resolutions are usually passed authorizing the printing and distributing of the journal, concerning the daily reading of the same, instructing the messengers to receive and distribute mail matter, authorizing the Clerk to provide stationery and to assign seats to reporters.

Joint committees are raised by resolutions, which may originate in either the Senate or House of Representatives, and are usually prepared by the Clerks by mutual agreement, so that there may be no duplicates. The following should be raised immediately:

Committee to wait upon the retiring Governor and inquire if he has any communication to make to the General Assembly.

Committee on Canvass of Vote for State Officers.

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House of Representatives must be called to order by the Speaker* of the preceding House, or by the senior member† of any previous House. After prayer by the Chaplain the roll is called by the Chief Clerk in the Secretary's office, and the oath‡ administered to those answering, by the person presiding. Members not answering to their names should, upon their first appearance, inform the Speaker and take the oath.

The chairman will then appoint two temporary clerks and four temporary tellers. The House will next proceed to ballot for Speaker. Upon the declaration of the result, a committee of two should be appointed to inform the Speaker of his election.

The Speaker, upon assuming his duties and taking the oath of office, administered by the chairman, will call for ballots for Clerk.

The Clerk, having been duly elected and sworn, the House will pass resolutions appointing an Assistant Clerk, a Chaplain, four Messengers, and not less than four nor more than six Doorkeepers.

Resolutions should then be passed raising a Committee on Contested Elections; a committee to inform the Senate that the House is organized and ready for business, and a Committee on Canvass of Votes for Senators.§

The various preliminary resolutions (see Senate proceedings) are next in order, and the proceedings following the report of the various committees are the same as in the Senate.

* Gen. Stat., Sec. 385, Constitution, Art. 10, Sec. 1.

† This was held in 1885 to mean the member having served the greatest number of terms.

‡ For form see Gen. Stat., Sec. 3264.

§ This duty is imperative, as in case the canvassing board find a tie vote in any district the House of Representatives must designate by ballot which shall be elected. (Constitution, Art. 3, Sec. 6, and Amendments, Art. 3.)

THE STATE OFFICERS.

As soon as the canvass of votes for State officers is received it should be referred to the proper committee, and the committee should immediately proceed to the performance of its duty. A recess may be taken pending the report, but there should be no adjournment for the day until the report of this committee has been received and acted on. If the committee report that a majority of votes has been cast for any or all the officers, joint resolutions should be passed declaring such election.

In case the Governor is elected a joint committee of one Senator and two Representatives should be raised to inform him of his election, and a similar committee to inform the Secretary, Treasurer, and Comptroller, if elected.

If the Lieutenant-Governor is elected, the Senate will appoint a committee of two to wait upon him and ask his acceptance of the office. Immediately after the acceptance of the report of this committee His Honor will enter the Senate Chamber, take the oath of office (usually administered by a Judge of the Superior Court), and assume his duties.

The Senate, upon receiving through its member of the committee notice of the acceptance of the offices to which they are elected by the other State officers, should notify the House that it is ready to meet that body in Joint Convention, and having received a similar notice from the House, the Senate may proceed to the Representatives' hall.

If the Committee on Canvass of Vote for State Officers reports that no election by the people has occurred for any or all the officers, a joint resolution should be passed declaring the facts found to be true, and naming an hour of the succeeding day at which the two houses will meet in joint convention to elect.

THE JOINT CONVENTION.

The Joint Convention is called to order by the President, or President pro tem., of the Senate, the Clerk of the Senate acting as clerk.

Prayer by the Chaplain of the Senate or House.

If there shall have been an election by the people, a resolution should be passed raising a committee of one Senator and two Representatives to inform the Governor-elect that the Senate and House of Representatives are met in Joint Convention for his inauguration, and to receive any communication he may desire to make. The committee having performed their duties and reported are discharged, and the Governor, attended by his staff, the Secretary, Treasurer, and Comptroller, appear in the hall. The oath of office is administered to the newly elected officers (by a Judge of the Supreme or Superior Court usually), and the inaugural message is delivered. The Governor then retires and the Convention is dissolved.

If there shall have been no election by the people, the Convention assembles in the same manner. The roll of the Senate is called by the Clerk of the Senate, and the names of absentees must be entered on the Journal of the Senate.

The roll of the House is then called by the Clerk of the House, and the names of absentees must be entered upon the Journal of the House.

The President then appoints four tellers and the Convention proceeds without debate to ballot for Governor, and subsequently for the other State officers separately, following which the Convention is dissolved.

SUBSEQUENT PROCEEDINGS.

Upon the re-assembling of each House after the dissolution of the Joint Convention, the presiding officer must report the doings of the Joint Convention, and declaratory resolutions should be passed in the same manner as in case of an election by the people, the same notices of election given, and the inauguration may then be proceeded with in the same manner

RULINGS OF THE PRESIDING OFFICERS

OF THE

---

ADDITIONS TO THE ROLL.

In the House, in 1891, a member arose to a question of privilege, stating that the name of a certain man should be added to the roll of the House. The chairman (Perry) ruled the member out of order. On appeal the decision of the Chair was sustained (H. J., 1891, p. 9).

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Upon the construction of the provision in article eleventh of the Constitution requiring "two-thirds of each House" to vote in the affirmative to adopt an amendment to the Constitution, the Speaker of the House (Rice), in 1864, ruled that two-thirds of the whole House was necessary. The ruling was appealed from and the House decided that two-thirds of those present was sufficient. This decision was followed by the Speakers of the House in 1876 (Waller), in 1877 (L. Harrison), and in 1884 (H. B. Harrison).

APPROPRIATIONS FROM THE STATE TREASURY.

In 1889, the Speaker of the House (Perry) ruled that the provision in Section 402 of the General Statutes, requiring resolutions appropriating money from the State treasury to be referred to the Committee on Appropriations was mandatory, and so referred a resolution that had been favorably reported by the Committee on Claims and passed by the Senate. This ruling was appealed from and the appeal sustained (H. J., 1889, p. 497).

BILLS.

In the House, in 1891, the point was raised that a bill being in contravention of the Statutes was not in order. The Speaker

---

*The General Assembly of 1889, having authorized the preparation of this chapter and made an appropriation for that purpose, the Clerks of the House for that year were employed to search the Journals from 1869, and the result of their work is here given, together with the rulings of the sessions of 1891 and 1893. This list of the rulings is required to be kept complete from session to session.

(Paige) ruled that the point of order was not well taken (H. J., 1891, pp. 249, 250).

CHANGE OF VOTES.

In 1883 the President of the Senate (Sumner) ruled that after the result of a yea and nay vote had been declared, the record could not be altered by the change of votes except upon reconsideration of the bill (S. J., 1883, p. 627).

COMMITTEES.

In 1891, the point was raised that the House Committee on Canvass of Votes for State Officers having made its report was thereby dissolved, and that therefore the reference to that Committee of a House Joint Resolution was not in order. The Speaker (Paige) ruled the point of order not well taken, on the ground that committees appointed by the House are in existence until the close of the session, unless discharged from service by vote of the House (H. J., 1891, p. 163).

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

In the House, in 1887, the Speaker (Hoyt), in response to a request for a decision on that point, ruled that Rule XIII did not require that resolutions favorably reported and printed must be filed on the members' desks one day before they could be starred for action, explaining that the clerks were unable to tell what resolutions were to be starred on the Calendar until the printed copies had been filed (H. J., 1887, p. 369).

In 1889, the Speaker (Perry) ruled that if, during the debate upon a measure, a member of the committee signified his desire to withdraw from the majority report and sign the minority report and thereby a majority of the committee were found to have signed the latter, it must be considered as the majority report (H. J., 1889, p. 1041).

CONTESTED ELECTIONS.

In the House, in 1893, the point was raised that members whose seats were contested were not entitled to vote on a report recommending that a petitioner for a seat in the House be given leave to withdraw. The Speaker (Brooks) ruled the point of order not well taken (H. J., 1893, p. 498).

INTRODUCTION OF JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

In 1891, the point was raised in the Senate that a joint resolution was not in order, the Senate not having been officially notified that the House had organized. The President pro tem. (Read) ruled the point of order not well taken (S. J., 1891, p. 11).

JOINT RULES.

The Speaker of the House (Pine), in 1883, ruled that the House might suspend a rule relating to its Calendar although it was a joint rule. The ruling was appealed from but sustained (H. J., 1883, pp. 811, 812).

NEW BUSINESS AND AMENDMENTS.

In the House, in 1884, the force of a joint resolution restricting the time for the admission of new business was questioned, and the Speaker (H. B. Harrison) ruled that the resolution was in effect a joint rule, and could only be set aside by a two-thirds vote (H. J., 1884, p. 537).

During the same session the Speaker ruled that if the resolution "except bills or resolutions originating in committees," a motion instructing a committee to report a specified resolution came within the exception and was in order (H. J., 1884, p. 538).

In 1886, the point was raised that a petition of a private nature did not come within the provisions contemplated by the constitution and statutes as to the right of petition, and consequently could not be received after the time limited for the reception of new business. The Speaker (Tibbits) ruled the point of order well taken (H. J., 1886, p. 288).

In the House, in 1885, the point was raised that an amendment was new business, and not in order. The Speaker (Simonds) ruled that it was not within the province of the Chair to decide a question of that nature. In 1889, the point was raised that an amendment offered was not germane to the bill before the House, and the Speaker (Perry) ruled that the point was well taken, and the House sustained the ruling (H. J., 1889, p. 355).

In the House, in 1891, a resolution was introduced declaring Nicholas Staub elected Comptroller. It was moved to amend by adding declaration of the election of other State officers. By the Speaker (Paige) the amendment was ruled out of order as not germane (H. J., 1891, p. 177).

The Speaker of the House (Hoyt), in 1887, ruled that a motion to substitute an original bill for a substitute favorably reported by a committee was in the nature of an amendment and in order (H. J., 1887, p. 508).

ORGANIZATION OF HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

In the House, in 1891, a resolution was introduced paying the Speaker of the 1889 House for services rendered at the organization of the House of 1891. The point was raised that the resolution was contrary to the provisions of the constitution and the statutes regulating the compensation of members of the General Assembly. The Speaker (Paige) ruled the point of order not well taken, as the resolution was in accordance with well established precedents (H. J., 1891, p. 223).

PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS.

In 1883, the Speaker of the House (Pine) ruled that an objection to a bill upon its first reading takes precedence of a motion to refer to committee, and the question is "shall the bill be rejected" (H. J., 1883, p. 149).

In reference to the provision of House Rule XXXII, requiring the largest number or sum to be first voted on, the Speaker of the House (H. B. Harrison) ruled in 1884, that this did not apply to amendments reducing the number or sum proposed in a bill or resolution (H. J., 1884, p. 427).

The Speaker of the House (Tibbits), in 1886, ruled that a motion for the yeas and nays takes precedence over a motion for a rising vote (H. J., 1886, p. 633).

The previous question having been ordered, the Speaker of the House in 1885 (Simonds), ruled that the vote on the main question takes precedence of all other motions (H. J., 1886, pp. 521, 656, 677). At the same session the point was raised that, after an amendment to a bill had been offered, it was not in order to move the previous question on the bill until the amendment had been voted on. The Speaker ruled that the point was not well taken, and the House sustained the ruling (H. J., 1885, p. 647).

The Speaker of the House in 1884 (H. B. Harrison), ruled that the consideration of matters pending at adjournment might, by unanimous consent, be deferred, and routine business proceeded with (H. J., 1884, pp. 545, 607), which practice has since been followed.

In the House, in 1891, a motion to reconsider was made, and a member began to discuss the main question, when the motion for reconsideration was seconded. The point of order was made that it was too late to second the motion for reconsideration. The point of order was sustained by the Speaker (Paige). Immediately following this a motion was made that the House take a recess, and the Speaker entertained the motion, to which objection was made. The Speaker ruled that the motion to take a recess was in order, from which ruling an appeal was taken. Vote disclosed absence of quorum (H. J., 1891, pp. 274-277).

In the House, in 1891, before a declaration of the result of a roll-call was announced, a member moved that, inasmuch as the roll-call showed no quorum present, the House adjourn. The Speaker (Paige) ruled the motion out of order (H. J., 1891, p. 343).

READING OF LETTERS.

The President pro tem. of the Senate (Walsh), in 1887, ruled that the reading of letters relating to matters before the Senate containing the opinion of individuals upon the subject under consideration was not in order (S. J., 1887, p. 661).

RECONSIDERATIONS.

In 1883, the President of the Senate (Sumner) ruled that a motion to reconsider the action of the Senate could not be entertained unless the resolution voted on was in possession of the Senate (S. J., 1883, p. 627).

In 1887, the Speaker of the House (Hoyt) ruled that a motion to reconsider was in order, although the bill was not in possession of the House (H. J., 1887, p. 930), and the Speaker (Perry) so decided in 1889 (H. J., 1889, p. 734).

In 1884, the Speaker of the House (H. B. Harrison) ruled that a motion to reconsider must be made within the time specified in Rule XXXVII, and that notice of intention to so move cannot operate to extend that time (H. J., 1884, p. 336).

In 1887, the Speaker of the House (Hoyt) ruled that a motion to reconsider made after the session day subsequent to its passage was not in order (H. J., 1887, p. 794). Subsequently during the same session, a bill was recalled from the Secretary's office by joint resolution, and upon motion being made to reconsider the action of the House, the point was raised that the time for reconsideration had elapsed, but the point of order was overruled (H. J., 1887, p. 881).

In the House in 1889, this point was raised, and the Speaker (Perry) decided that it was well taken. The decision was appealed from, and, after lengthy discussion, sustained (H. J., 1889, p. 724).

In 1885, the House having upon appeal sustained a decision of the chair, a motion was made to reconsider the vote to sustain, and the point was raised that a vote on an appeal could not be reconsidered. The Speaker (Simonds) ruled that such a motion was proper, but could not be acted on at that time (H. J., 1885, p. 673).

The President of the Senate (Sumner), in 1883, ruled that the Senate having, in a case of disagreeing action, voted to "adhere," the bill could not again be considered (S. J., 1883, p. 746).

In the House in 1893, the point was raised that a motion to table a motion to reconsider could not be withdrawn. The Speaker (Brooks) ruled the point of order not well taken. Appeal was taken, but was not sustained (H. J., 1893, pp. 1526, 1527).

In the House in 1893, the point was raised that a matter could not be reconsidered, as two session-days had elapsed since the prior action of the House on the matter. The Speaker (Brooks) ruled the point of order not well taken, and on appeal was sustained (H. J., 1893, p. 487).

In the House in 1893, the point was raised that a motion to reconsider was not in order when the matter was already in the possession of the Senate in accordance with a resolution passed requiring the clerk to transmit daily all matter acted upon. The Speaker (Brooks) ruled that the point of order was not well taken (H. J., 1893, p. 1336).

RESTORATION OF FORFEITED RIGHTS.

The question as to what constitutes the two-thirds of the members of both branches of the General Assembly required by Article XVII of the Amendments to the Constitution, has been several times raised, but the decisions have not been uniform. By reference to H. J., 1883, pp. 571-575, 579, it will be seen that at that time it was considered that two-thirds of the members of the House must vote in the affirmative. The Senate in 1884 (S. J., p. 285), decided that two-thirds of the Senate was required to vote in the affirmative; the question having been raised by the President of the Senate (Sumner) for the purpose of getting a decision on that point. In 1889, the Speaker of the House (Perry) ruled that two-thirds of the members of the House must vote in the affirmative (H. J., 1889, p. 373). This decision was appealed from, and, after full discussion, the ruling of the Speaker was sustained, but, a motion to reconsider being made, the House reversed its previous action, sustained the appeal, and proceeded by a two-thirds vote of the members present to pass the resolution (H. J., 1889, pp. 380, 381).

In the House in 1893, the Speaker (Brooks) ruled that it required the affirmative vote of two-thirds of all the members of the House to pass a resolution restoring forfeited rights. Appeal was taken and was sustained (H. J., 1893, p. 228).

ROLL CALL.

In 1893 in the Senate, a call of the roll of the Senate was demanded, and the point was raised that, as the vote just taken had not disclosed the absence of a quorum, the demand was out of order. The President (Cady) decided the point of order well taken (S. J., 1893, p. 464).

RULES.

In 1891, in the House, the point was raised that a certain resolution proposing an amendment to the House rules was out of order, inasmuch as the proposed rule was in contravention of the General Statutes. The Speaker (Paige) ruled the point of order not well taken, and on appeal his decision was sustained (H. J., 1891, pp. 184-189).

SECOND READING.

In 1891, on the first session-day, certain bills for public acts were taken from the table and read the second time. The point of order was raised that under House Rule 24 the foregoing bills could not come up for a second reading until the second session-day of the House. The Speaker (Paige) ruled the point of order not well taken on the ground that Rule 24 referred to calendar-days and not to session-days (H. J., 1891, p. 163).

UNPARLIAMENTARY LANGUAGE.

In the House in 1891, a member referred to the Governor as an "intruder and usurper." The point was raised that the language used was unparliamentary and disrespectful to the Governor of Connecticut. The Speaker (Paige) decided the point of order well taken, and directed the clerk to take down the unparliamentary language (H. J., 1891, p. 189).

VETOED MEASURES.

The Constitution, Article IV, Section 12, provides that if the Governor disapproves a bill, he shall send it, with his objections, to the house in which it originated, where it shall be reconsidered.

Upon the construction of the following sentence, "If, after reconsideration, that house shall again pass it, it shall be sent with objections to the other house, which shall also reconsider it," the Speaker of the House (Pine) in 1883 (H. J., p. 897) ruled that the main question was, "Shall the bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?" and that this question was open to any of the subsidiary motions, but not to a motion to amend the bill, as that would change the main question.

In the same year the Senate amended a vetoed bill to remove the features objected to by the Governor, but the House refused to receive the bill as amended (H. J., 1883, p. 868), and upon its return to the Senate, that body reconsidered its action, rejected the amendment, and then voted upon the passage of the bill as vetoed, "the objections of the Governor notwithstanding" (S. J., p. 723).

In the House, in 1889, the chair (Mr. Olmstead) ruled that an amendment to a vetoed bill was in order, but, upon appeal, the House sustained the appeal (H. J., 1889, p. 688).

Later in the same session, a bill that had been passed over the Governor's veto was again reconsidered,* amended, and again passed, but the Senate refused to consider the amendments, voting upon the original bill as returned by the Governor (S. J., 1889, p. 955). The President of the Senate (Merwin) had the day previously ruled in a parallel case, that the only question properly before the Senate was, "Shall the bill pass, the objections of the Governor notwithstanding?" and this ruling had, upon appeal, been sustained by the Senate (S. J., 1889, p. 934).

A bill having been returned to the house in which it originated, and the objections of the Governor sustained by its rejection, the further disposal of it has not been uniform. In 1883 (H. J., pp. 865, 897), the House ordered such bills sent directly to the Secretary's office. In 1889, a vetoed resolution was passed in the Senate, where it originated, the objections of the Governor notwithstanding, but failed of passage in the House, and that body, notwithstanding there was disagreeing action, sent the resolution to the Secretary's office, instead of allowing it to go back to the Senate, as would be the case with a bill that had not been presented to the Governor (H. J., 1889, pp. 709, 739). So far as noted, when this point has been raised, the decision has been that unless the house in which a bill originated, and to which it was first returned, passed it over the Governor's veto, there was no reason for sending it to the other house.

As above noted, the House, in 1883, decided that if the house to which a bill was returned by the Governor sustained the veto, the bill should go to the Secretary's office; but previous to the question having been raised, a resolution that had been returned by the Governor and rejected was allowed to go to the Senate and there passed, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. The resolution came back to the House on the disagreeing action, and that body decided that having once reconsidered it as required by the constitution, and rejected it, no further action could be taken (H. J., 1883, pp. 812-817).

This decision was in accordance with a ruling by the Speaker of the House (L. Harrison) in 1877, but that ruling was not at that time sustained by the House (H. J., 1877, p. 712).

In 1889, in the House, the point was raised that a vetoed bill, having been once reconsidered, could not be again reconsidered, but the Speaker (Perry) ruled that the point was not well taken, explaining, however, that he so ruled in order to correct a mistake, which had evidently and admittedly been made by the House in this particular case, and not as a strict parliamentary ruling, or as a ruling to be taken as a precedent (H. J., 1889, p. 1138).

YEAS AND NAYS.

In the House in 1893, the Speaker (Brooks) ruled that a motion for the previous question could not be withdrawn during roll-call, as on that motion the yeas and nays had been ordered by a vote of the House, and that the roll-call was then in progress and must be concluded. Appeal was taken but was not sustained (H. J., 1893, p. 1322).

PARLIAMENTARY PRACTICE AND PRECEDENTS.

Upon most occasions that arise in the Connecticut General Assembly, the common parliamentary law that governs all legislative bodies, contains the rules which prevail. This common parliamentary law has grown up in modern times among English and American legislative bodies. The General Assembly of Connecticut has followed for many years the simple forms that formerly prevailed in the parliament of Great Britain with such modifications and changes as have been found necessary from time to time. "The Law and Practice of Legislative Assemblies in the United States of America," by Luther S. Cushing, contains the rules and precedents which govern almost every question that may arise in the Connecticut General Assembly. This authority can be safely appealed to in nearly every case that may arise. Cushing's Manual and Jefferson's Manual contain rules which are stated in such a general way that in many cases an examination of the larger work of Mr. Cushing will be found expedient by a legislator or presiding officer. Upon some questions that have arisen, presiding officers in the Senate and House in cases of dispute have followed the rulings of the Speaker of the House of Representatives at Washington, as that body is governed by the same general parliamentary law except when modified by its own rules and precedents. The digest of Mr. Barclay, which is used in the House of Representatives at Washington, contains many precedents which have been found useful by presiding officers in the Connecticut General Assembly. The practice in Connecticut has usually favored a simple and direct application of a few rules so as to facilitate the dispatch of business. The general parliamentary law which obtains, as cited above, is modified in Connecticut, first, by the joint rules and special rules of the House or Senate; second, by certain customs which are peculiar to Connecticut and which have been followed for so many years as to have the force of binding precedent; and third, by certain provisions of the general statutes.

JOINT RULES.

The joint rules relate principally to the organization of the General Assembly. They do not, however, cover the proceedings in case of an election of the State officers by the General Assembly.

The second joint rule provides for the appointment of the joint standing committees, which are now twenty-two in number. This rule provides what particular matters shall be referred to the several committees. The presiding officers and members usually follow these rules in referring business to proper committees, and it is considered bad form, unless under extraordinary circumstances, to refer bills or resolutions to other than the appropriate committees provided by the rules. The Committee on Cities and Boroughs was established in 1866, to relieve the Committee on Incorporations of its work relating to municipal charters, and also to relieve the Committee on Railroads of business relating to horse railroad companies. The Committee on Insurance was established in 1875, to further relieve the Committee on Incorporations of attention to important insurance interests. The Committee on Manufactures was established in 1877, for the purpose of attending to certain resolutions and bills that were usually referred to the Committee on Incorporations. The Committee on Appropriations was established in 1885, to take charge of all matters covered by chapter 40, and by section 402 of the General Statutes. The powers and duties of that committee are governed by the chapter and section referred to. The work of the Committee on Engrossed Bills is performed mainly by the Clerk of Bills, who is appointed under the provisions of section 401 of the statutes by the Secretary of the State, the President of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House. The duties of the Clerk of Bills are pointed out more specifically by the tenth joint rule. The duties of the Committee on Engrossed Bills are provided in detail by the ninth and fourteenth joint rules.

The fourth joint rule provides that committees of conference shall consist of one Senator and two Representatives who were in the majority vote of their respective Houses. It sometimes happens that a question is raised whether a person nominated for a member of a committee of conference can be questioned whether or not he was in the majority vote. It has been decided in the House of Representatives at Washington, and the precedent has been followed in Connecticut, that unless the yeas and nays were taken and recorded no member can question the vote of another member if that member declares that he was in the majority vote.

The fifth joint rule provides that when each House shall have adhered to its vote of disagreement, the bill or resolution shall be considered lost. The regular method of procedure when a bill or resolution is returned to the House where it originated, upon disagreeing action of the other branch of the General Assembly, is to make a motion to insist and ask for a committee of conference. The subject matter should then be returned to the other House, and that body usually insists also and grants a committee of conference. If the committee of conference cannot agree they so report, and either House may then recede from its former action and concur with the other, or the usual course under such circumstances is that each House adheres to its original action, and the bill is lost. If the committee of conference agrees upon a report, the necessary action is followed in one or both branches, and the action recommended by the committee is adopted by amendment or otherwise. It sometimes happens that a motion to adhere is made, before a motion to insist and ask or grant a committee of conference, and it has been held that a motion so made may be entertained, but it is not considered respectful treatment of a bill nor of the other branch of the General Assembly to make a motion to adhere, until after a committee of conference has been asked for and granted and the inability of the two Houses to agree has become apparent.

The seventh joint rule provides for the return of a bill after it has been passed and sent to the Governor and before he has signed the same. If the bill has been signed by the Governor it has become a law, and can only be repealed as other statutes. If the bill has not been signed by the Governor, the invariable practice requires that the Governor should consent to its return. If, after passage and transmission to the Governor, either House desires that the bill shall be recalled, there is no rule of courtesy between the two Houses which requires a recall, and it should not be recalled unless the sense of both Houses agrees that there should be further consideration of the measure.

The eighth joint rule provides the method of procedure in joint convention of the two Houses.

The eleventh, twelfth, and thirteenth joint rules provide for the endorsement, form, and printing of private and public acts. Private acts must be printed at the expense of the parties interested. The Clerks of the House and Senate will usually attend to the printing of private acts if the name of a responsible party is given to them, who shall be charged with the cost of the same. It is better that the Clerks should attend to this, because in that way the rules concerning the form of printing and filing for the calendar will be better observed.

The fifteenth joint rule relates to the method of procedure after bills have been reported from their respective committees.

RULES OF THE SENATE.

Most of the special rules of the Senate are similar to the rules of the House. The order of precedence of certain motions provided by the sixth Senate rule differs somewhat from that of the thirty-third House rule, but the only important difference lies in the fact that there is no provision in the Senate rules for a motion for the previous question. It has been held that the previous question cannot be ordered in the Senate because there is no such practice or rule in the Senate of the United States. In 1863 it was held, however, by the presiding officer, after a debate had been carried on for several hours apparently for the purpose of delay, that the chair would entertain a motion that "the Senate will proceed to take a vote upon the question pending." Such a motion is equivalent in its effect to the previous question, but it is believed this is the only instance in which the force of a motion for the previous question has been felt in the Senate. The thirteenth rule of the Senate provides that all committees except committees of conference shall be appointed by the Senate. Before 1868 the committees of the Senate were appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor; between 1868 and 1877 the practice varied somewhat according to the political complexion of the Senate and the Lieutenant-Governor. Since 1877 the rule has been, as at the present time, notwithstanding the fact that the Senate and Lieutenant-Governor have several times been of the same political faith. This is in accordance with the practice of the United States Senate and is justified by the fact that the Lieutenant-Governor is not a member of the body over which he presides, as is the Speaker of the House, and is not chosen by a majority of the Senate. The nineteenth Senate rule provides that a motion to reconsider may be made within three days of the actual session of the Senate. This differs from the thirty-seventh House rule which provides that a motion to reconsider must be made on the same or the succeeding session day. The difference between these two rules sometimes leads to a misunderstanding by new members. There seems to be no good reason why these two rules should differ, and it would be well if a revising committee should fix the time for reconsideration within the same number of days in both Houses.

RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

These rules have been carefully revised twice within a few years, and as they have modified materially the old rules and have made some changes in the common parliamentary practice, a careful examination is requisite for any member who remembers the older practice and rules, or who desires to be ready upon parliamentary questions that may arise.

MODIFICATIONS OF THE RULES BY STATUTE.

To understand thoroughly the powers and duties of the executive and legislative branches of the government and their relations to each other it is best to read the sections of the General Statutes from section 287 to section 429 inclusive. The special statute rules governing the General Assembly will be found from section 385 to section 429 inclusive. Under these statute rules the following limitations are placed upon the power of the General Assembly:

No petition can be considered for any relief which any court has power to grant.

Petitions of an adversary nature must be served upon the parties interested at least twelve days before the second day of the session of the General Assembly.

Petitions for the incorporation of banks, savings banks, or alteration of the charter of a city or borough, the incorporation of a railroad, horse-railroad, canal, or turnpike company, or for the alteration of the charter of any such company, must be duly advertised for at least three weeks before the first day of the session of the Assembly.

Petitions relating to the school fund must be returned and docketed by the first Monday in December preceding the session of the Assembly.

Members of the Assembly cannot appear as attorneys before the Assembly or any committee thereof, unless in their own cause or that of the towns they represent, or of some public corporation therein.

Applications for restoration of forfeited rights cannot be heard unless notice shall have been published at least once a week for two successive weeks within two months before the opening of the session.

Section 402 of the General Statutes provides that all estimates for the expenditures of the several departments, and all bills and resolutions appropriating money from the State Treasury, except those for the payment of claims against the State, and for the payment of the contingent expenses of the Senate and House, shall be referred to the Committee on Appropriations before final action thereon. No appropriation for a salary, compensation, or fees in excess of the amount allowed by law, can be made until after a law authorizing the increase has been passed.

Appropriations in excess of ten thousand dollars must be divided, if possible, into specific items.

No general legislation can be attached to an appropriation bill.

Sections 405-411 inclusive limit the powers of the executive and legislative departments of the government in relation to appropriations.

Any bill for a public act amending or repealing a statute must either cite the language of the statute amended or repealed, or so much thereof as may be necessary to show the effect of such amendment or repeal.

Contestants for seats in either House of the General Assembly cannot be allowed more than one hundred dollars for attorney fees and expenses, together with the legal fees of witnesses summoned with the approval of the Committee on Contested Elections.

The Treasurer cannot pay any member of the General Assembly his compensation and mileage until after the final adjournment.

Persons elected to either branch of the General Assembly by illegal practices are incapable of holding their seats unless they can show that they were not, directly or indirectly, concerned in it.

If any person elected a Representative shall by himself or others offer or distribute gratuitously among the electors any liquor on the day of election, or shall on any previous day entertain electors in like manner, with intent to procure votes, he shall be considered guilty of undue influence and illegal practices, and forfeit his seat in the House.

The mileage distance from each town to Hartford is fixed by section 428.

THE CALENDAR.

Prior to 1875 the regular business of each House (upon the reports of the committees), was taken up according to the convenience of the House and usually without notice to the members. The business was called up by the chairmen of the respective committees from the Clerk's table at the pleasure of the several chairmen. Since that time, the system of putting all public acts and joint resolutions upon a calendar which is daily distributed to each member, gives notice to each member of the order of business for the day.

The rules governing the printing of bills and the calendar will be found in sections 397-400 inclusive of the General Statutes. In addition, the twenty-third Senate rule and the ninth House rule govern the Clerks of the respective branches and direct them how they shall prepare and keep the respective calendars.

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION.

The question has occasionally been raised in the House whether the previous question applies to anything more than the immediate question at issue: that is, if the pending motion is to amend a bill or resolution, and the previous question is ordered, whether any other question is thereby ordered than that upon the adoption of the proposed amendment, or whether the force of the previous question cuts off debate upon the whole subject matter and calls for a vote upon the pending bill or resolution as well as upon the motion to amend it. The weight of Connecticut rulings or authority is that in the Connecticut House the previous question when ordered, applies only to the immediate question before the House, and does not cut off debate upon any questions at issue that properly precede the definite one under debate.

YEAS AND NAYS.

A record of the yeas and nays may be ordered by one-fifth of the members present, and this right is guaranteed by section 9 of the third article of the Constitution. It was held in 1875 and several times thereafter, that the constitutional right to call for the yeas and nays exists at any time before the actual and final declaration of the result, although there may have been taken a viva voce and a standing vote before the yeas and nays are called for. This right to move for the yeas and nays at any time before a declaration of the result was held to exist before the adoption of the thirty-sixth rule of the House in its present form, and exists by force of the constitution in both the Senate and House independently of any rule.

RECONSIDERATION OF A VETOED BILL.

It was decided by the Connecticut House in 1877 that as long as a vetoed bill is in the possession of either House, that House may vote more than once upon the motion to reconsider, and pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. This is in accordance with a decision of the National House of Representatives in 1842. Undoubtedly, however, the second motion to reconsider should be made by some one who was in the negative vote upon the first motion to reconsider. When the vetoed bill or resolution has been reconsidered, it has been held that it is open for amendments so as to meet the objections of the executive, and on several occasions vetoed bills have been so amended, and have often received the approval of the executive. The amendment makes a new bill, and these rulings are in the interest of convenient and common-sense legislation.

TO LAY ON THE TABLE A MOTION TO RECONSIDER.

The Washington practice of clinching a vote upon a bill by making a motion to reconsider, and then laying that motion upon the table does not obtain in Connecticut. It was attempted in 1861 and resulted in failure. To permit such a thing to be done would violate the common-sense rules permitting reconsideration within two days in the House and three days in the Senate, and would enable a temporary majority to obtain an unfair advantage.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

A question has been raised once or twice whether two-thirds of all the members elected to either House are necessary to approve an amendment to the Constitution, or whether two-thirds of a quorum is sufficient. It was decided by the House itself in 1864 upon an appeal and by Speakers of the House in 1875, 1876, 1877, and 1884, that two-thirds of a quorum is sufficient to approve an amendment to the constitution of the State.* These decisions are in accordance with the ruling of the House of Representatives at Washington, in 1865 upon the adoption of the thirteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

MINORITY REPORTS.

In most legislative bodies the majority of a committee control the reports, and the only report that can be made to a legislative body from one of its committees is that which is known as the report of the committee, which is the report agreed to by a majority of its members. The minority of a committee cannot usually make a separate or special report. In the Connecticut General Assembly, however, a custom has existed for a long time which permits the minority of a committee to make a special report. This special report may be simply the negative views of a minority, giving the reasons why they dissent from the affirmative action of the majority of the committee. When the minority of a committee report affirmatively, they may recommend the passage of a resolution or bill for a public act, which resolution or bill accompanies the report. It is the usual practice, however, to consider the report of the majority of a committee first, and if that report is accepted, no action should be taken upon the minority report, but it should be treated as rejected without further action because it has no right of existence except as a courtesy to the minority members of the committee and the opinions of the minority have been rejected once by the acceptance of the report of the committee. If, however, the report of the majority of a committee is rejected, it is usual to take up immediately, for consideration, the report of the minority. It does not follow, however, if the report of the majority is rejected that the report of the minority should be accepted. Any bill or resolution reported by the minority of a committee should be printed, and if passed, requires all the formalities in its passage that are requisite if the same came from the majority of the committee.

---

* This rule has been held to govern in restoring forfeited rights.

POWER TO SECURE A QUORUM.

The Constitution provides in Section 7, Article III, that while a majority of each House shall constitute a quorum to do business, a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members in such manner and under such penalties as each House may prescribe. There has never been any legislation by either House of the Connecticut General Assembly prescribing the manner in which the attendance of absent members may be secured. Such legislation has been proposed on two or three occasions, but the good sense of absent members has prevented any necessity for its adoption. On a few occasions during times of political excitement the minority has withdrawn and left the House without a quorum for the purpose of preventing immediate legislation, but in no instance has such action by the minority continued longer than till the next regular day of meeting. On one or two occasions it has been suggested that the Speaker has power to order the doors to be closed. This is undoubtedly a mistake, and it would require the passage of a resolution by the House itself, which resolution should provide a means of issuing a proper summons, to be served by some proper official, to bring the absent members on to the floor. On a few occasions Speakers have ordered the doors to be closed to prevent members from going out when it was feared the House might be left without a quorum. This was undoubtedly an arbitrary assumption of power which no Speaker or door-keeper could enforce, and has been submitted to only because of the good nature of the members who were thus kept within the House. In most legislative bodies when it becomes necessary to compel the attendance of absent members, the Sergeant-at-arms is the official clothed with the power, upon an order of the House, to arrest the person of an absent member and bring him on to the floor of the House. If a member of a legislative body should, by violence, prevent the Sergeant-at-arms from securing his attendance, such member could undoubtedly be expelled and a new election could be ordered to fill the vacancy. As the Connecticut General Assembly has no Sergeant-at-arms, it is probable that the Sheriff of the County of Hartford could be clothed with the necessary power to arrest the persons of absent members and bring them on to the floor of the House, but it is not probable any such extreme exercise of the constitutional power of either House will ever become necessary.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

The number of Justices of the Peace in each town may be equal to one-half the number of jurors to which such town is by law entitled. They are elected biennially in each town at the electors' meeting held for the election of State officers (Acts of 1889, Cap. XV) and hold office from and after the first Monday of the succeeding March and until the first Monday of the third March succeeding their election (Acts of 1893, Cap. CLXXVI). If any person elected fails to take the oath required by law within thirty days next after his term of office commences, his office is deemed to be vacant, and may be filled at a special election. The official character of Justices of the Peace may be certified to by the Secretary of the State, by the clerks of the Superior Court for each county, and by town clerks in their respective towns.

For the law relating to the jurisdiction, powers, etc., of Justices of the Peace, see General Statutes, Chapter LVII, page 163.

The following is a list of the qualified Justices returned to the Secretary's office by the clerks of the Superior Court in each county.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

[The commissions of those marked with a * expire February 1, 1896.

Before the Revolution the commissions of notaries emanated from the Archbishop of Canterbury. The commission of Elihu Hall, dated August 30, 1721, is registered in the Secretary's office. The Governor was first authorized in 1784 to appoint one or more notaries public in this State, as the commercial interests thereof may render it necessary or convenient. In 1833 notaries were empowered to administer oaths and take acknowledgment of deeds. In 1800 there were fifteen notaries in Connecticut; in 1812, thirty-two; in 1827, sixty-four.

This list contains about 2,400 names.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

CONFERENCES.—The churches on the east side of the Connecticut River belong to the New England Southern Conference. The churches on the west side of the river nearly all belong to the New York East Conference, and are embraced in the New Haven and New York Districts. A few churches in the northwest corner of the State are attached to the Poughkeepsie district of the New York Conference. The Conferences usually meet in April of each year, and appointments are made annually.

PRESIDING ELDERS OF DISTRICTS.—NEW HAVEN, Rev. Crandall J. North, 261 George street, New Haven, Conn.; NEW YORK, Rev. John W. Beach, D.D., Middletown, Conn.; NORWICH, Rev. E. Tirrell, Norwich, Conn.; POUGHKEEPSIE, Rev. R. H. Travis, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

PHYSICIANS.

The following is a list of the physicians resident in this state and registered.

The list has been made as complete and full as possible by corresponding directly with some prominent physician in almost every town in the state.

The attempt to classify the practitioners according to their professed modes of practice has not been as satisfactory as could be wished, for want of reliable information.

The members of the Connecticut Medical Society and others of that school, are denominated simply Physicians.

Practitioners who profess to pursue a special system of practice are so designated, as far as could be ascertained.

Abbreviations: Phys., for Physicians; Hom., for Homeopathic; Ec., for Eclectic; N. D., for Not-defined and Nondescript. The latter list is large and includes many who properly belong in some one of the other classes, but who could not be so placed for want of information about them.

Names marked with a * are members of the Connecticut Medical Society. Names marked with † are members of the Connecticut Homeopathic Medical Society. List of members of the Connecticut Eclectic Medical Association could not be obtained.

Following the medical practitioners is a list of registered midwives.

LEGISLATIVE REUNIONS.

---

The Legislative Social Club of 1875, organized during the session of the General Assembly in that year, was the only association of several formed at various times which continued active and held annual reunions. On the occasion of its eleventh reunion at Hartford, in February, 1886, arrangements were made for a General Legislative Reunion, on the fifth day of May in that year at the Capitol. This was the first general reunion of State Officers and Members of the General Assembly in the history of the State. The executive committee was composed of ex-Governor H. B. Bigelow of New Haven (chairman), ex-Secretary of State D. Ward Northrop of Middletown, ex-Senators Caleb B. Bowers of New Haven, and N. B. Stevens of Hartford, ex-Representatives Wm. H. Pond of Milford, S. A. Hubbard and Leverett Brainard of Hartford, and Burwell Carter of Plainville, and George D. Curtis of Hartford, secretary. The records of the reunion show: Governors living at that time, ten; present at the reunion, seven. Lieutenant-Governors, eleven; present, six. Secretaries, twelve; present, ten. Treasurers, eleven; present, seven. Comptrollers, twelve; present, seven. Whole number of State officers, Senators, and Representatives reported as then living, four thousand seven hundred and eighty-two; present at the reunion, two thousand four hundred and ninety-one. Reunions of survivors of the several legislatures were held in the forenoon in rooms assigned in the Capitol, and the literary exercises in the afternoon in the Hall of the House included addresses by distinguished persons. Executive Committees were appointed on that day, at several individual legislative reunions, to arrange for future reunions. These committees, revised to the present time, are as follows:

1863—Senator John Allen, Old Saybrook (P. O. Saybrook), and Representatives Benjamin S. Bishop, West Hartford; F. O. Bennett, Ashford (P. O. Willimantic); Alonzo Whiting, Torrington; C. C. Hubbard, Middletown (P. O. Hartford); and Wm. H. Yeomans, Columbia.

UNITED STATES POSTAL REGULATIONS.

RATES OF POSTAGE ON DOMESTIC MATTER.

1. First Class.—Letters, and all other written matter, whether sealed or unsealed, and all other matter sealed, nailed, sewed, tied, or fastened in any manner, so that it cannot be easily examined, two cents an ounce or fraction thereof. Postal cards one cent each. Postal cards are unmailable with any writing or printing on the address side, except the direction, or with anything pasted upon or attached to them other than an address label.

2. Second Class.—Newspapers and periodical publications when sent by publishers or news agents, one cent a pound or fraction thereof. Newspapers and periodical publications sent by persons other than the publishers and news agents, one cent for every four ounces or fraction thereof.

3. Third Class. Printed matter, in unsealed wrappers only (all matter enclosed in sealed envelopes notched on the sides or corners must pay the letter rate), one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof, which must be fully prepaid. This includes books, circulars, chromos, hand-bills, engravings, lithographs, music, pamphlets, proof-sheets, and manuscripts accompanying the same, reproductions by the electric pen, hektograph, metallo-graph, papyrograph; and, in short, any reproduction upon paper by any process, except handwriting, typewriting, and the copying press, not in the nature of a personal correspondence. Limit of weight, four pounds, except for a single book, which may weigh more. Third-class matter must be fully prepaid or it will not be dispatched. The third-class rate of postage applies also to seeds, bulbs, scions, plants, roots, and cuttings, when sent in packages not over four pounds.

4. Fourth Class.—Merchandise and all mailable matter not included in the three preceding classes which is so prepared for mailing as to be easily withdrawn from the wrapper and examined. Rate, one cent an ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight, four pounds. Full prepayment compulsory.

NAME AND ADDRESS OF SENDER.

Whenever the interest or convenience of the sender of mail matter does not forbid it, he should print or write on it his name and address in the upper left hand corner of the letter or package. This will secure its direct return to him in case of non-delivery, avoiding the delay involved in sending it to the dead-letter office, and, in case of a letter, the necessary invasion there of its privacy.

The reason why so many articles of dead mail matter are accumulated and sold by the department every year is that they have nothing on them to indicate who mailed them.

It is very desirable to the department to have the senders of matter endorse upon it their names and addresses.

POSTAGE RATES TO FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Matter mailed in the United States, addressed to Mexico, is subject to the same postage rates and conditions as it would be if it were addressed for delivery in the United States; except that articles of miscellaneous merchandise (fourth-class matter), not sent as bona fide trade samples, are required to be sent by "Parcels Post," and that the following articles are absolutely excluded from the mails, without regard to the amount of postage prepaid, or the manner in which they are wrapped, viz.:

All sealed packages other than letters in their usual and ordinary form; all packages (including packages of second-class matter, which weigh more than 4 lbs. 6 ozs.) except such as are sent by "Parcels Post;" poisons, explosive, inflammable or malodorous substances, lottery tickets, fruits and vegetables which decompose quickly, live or dead (not dried) animals (except queen bees and their attendant bees), liquids, pastes, confections, and fatty substances; publications which violate any copyright law of Mexico.

Bona fide trade samples are transmissible to Mexico in the regular mails at the postage rate given below, opposite "Samples of Merchandise."

Matter mailed in the United States, addressed to Canada, is subject to the same postage rates and conditions as it would be if it were addressed for delivery in the United States, except that the following articles are absolutely excluded from the mails, without regard to the amount of postage prepaid, or the manner in which they are wrapped, viz. :

All sealed packages other than letters in their usual and ordinary form; all packages (except single volumes of printed books and packages of second-class matter) which weigh more than 4 lbs. 6 ozs.; liquids, poisons, explosives, fruits and vegetables, which decompose quickly, malodorous substances, lottery tickets, Police Gazettes, live or dead (not dried) animals (except queen bees and their attendant bees), pastes, confections, and fatty substances; publications which violate any copyright law of Canada.

RATES OF POSTAGE TO POSTAL UNION COUNTRIES.*

Letters, five cents a half ounce or fraction thereof (fifteen grams being the postal equivalent of half an ounce).

Postal cards two cents each. Registration fee eight cents. Printed matter and samples of merchandise, one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

UNMAILABLE MATTER.

Obscene books, letters, papers, pictures, and postal cards; lottery circulars and letters; liquids, gunpowder, and other explosives; live reptiles, animals, and insects (except queen bees); poisons; and any article liable to injure the mails or the persons of those handling them.

WEIGHING PACKAGES.

If you have no scales, have all packages weighed at the post-office. Postage must be prepaid in full or the packages will not be dispatched.

RE-FORWARDING.

Letters will be re-forwarded from one post-office to another upon the written request of the person addressed, without additional charge for postage; but packages of third and fourth class matter cannot be forwarded or returned without a new payment of postage.

THE SPECIAL DELIVERY SYSTEM.

Mailable matter intended for special delivery may be mailed at, and will be delivered from, any post-office in the United States.

Accordingly, every article of mailable matter to which is affixed a ten-cent special delivery stamp, in addition to the postage required by law, will, upon its arrival by mail, have immediate delivery by a special messenger within the carrier limits of any free-delivery post-office, or within one mile of any other post-office in the United States to which it may be addressed.

This provision also applies to drop-letters and other mailable matter deposited for local delivery, and to registered letters or parcels, when bearing special delivery stamps in addition to the full postage and the proper registry fee.

Special delivery stamps are sold at all post-offices, and cannot be used for any other purpose than to secure immediate delivery.

THE POSTAL MONEY-ORDER SYSTEM.

The money-order system is intended to promote public convenience and to secure safety through the mails of small sums of money. The maximum amount of a single order is $100, and no more than three orders may be issued in one day to the same remitter, in favor of the same payee, payable at the same post-office.

A person applying for a money order will be required to state the particulars upon a form of application which will be furnished by the postmaster.

Parties procuring money-orders should examine them to see that they are properly filled up and stamped. This caution is necessary to avoid difficulties in the way of payment.

A money-order may be indorsed once, but not oftener. The person who presents a money-order for payment must be identified if unknown to the postmaster. Under no circumstances can payment of an order be demanded on the day of issue.

A money-order may be repaid at the office of issue within one year, provided it bears not more than one indorsement. The fee will not be refunded. When a money-order has been lost by either remitter, payee, or indorsee, a duplicate thereof will be issued by the department, free of charge, to the owner of the original upon his making application (stating the circumstances of the loss), to be forwarded by the issuing or the paying postmaster, from each of whom he must obtain and furnish a certificate that the original order had not been, and would not be, paid or repaid, as the case may be.

The fees or charges for domestic money-orders will be as follows:

For orders not exceeding $2.50,.....	3 cents.
For orders not exceeding $5,.....	5 cents.
For orders exceeding $5, and not exceeding $10,.....	8 cents.
For orders exceeding $10, and not exceeding $20,.....	10 cents.
For orders exceeding $20, and not exceeding $30,.....	12 cents.

For orders exceeding $30, and not exceeding $40,.....	15 cents.
For orders exceeding $40, and not exceeding $50,.....	18 cents.
For orders exceeding $50, and not exceeding $60,.....	20 cents.
For orders exceeding $60, and not exceeding $75,... ..	25 cents.
For orders exceeding $75, and not exceeding $100,.....	30 cents.

THE REGISTRY SYSTEM.

The registry system is intended to secure to valuable mail matter in its transmission through the mails the utmost security attainable. All classes of mail matter may be registered.

The fee on registered matter, domestic or foreign, is eight cents for each letter or parcel, to be affixed in stamps, in addition to the postage. Full prepayment of postage and fee is required. Two or more letters or parcels addressed to, or intended for, the same person, cannot be tied or otherwise fastened together and registered as one.

Postmasters, before receiving a letter for registration, must require the sender to have it securely sealed with its contents; to have it fully and legibly addressed; to have his or her name and address indorsed across the end; and to have affixed the necessary stamps to fully prepay postage and fee. Postmasters, before receiving third and fourth-class matter for registration, must require full address, indorsement, and full prepayment of fee and postage, and further require that such matter shall be marked "Third Class," or "Fourth Class," as the case may be, and so put up as to safely bear transportation, and admit of an examination of contents, to ascertain that it is admissible to the mails as such matter.

LIST OF POST-OFFICES IN CON- NECTICUT.

[Corrected to Feb. 1, 1896.]

Offices in full-face type are money-order offices authorized to issue and to pay money-orders and postal notes. Those marked with the asterisk (*) are International, as well as Domestic, money-order offices.

By the letters c. h. in parenthesis, thus: (c. h.), county seats are indicated.

TOWNS, VILLAGES, AND DISTRICTS NOT CONTAINING POST-OFFICES OF THE SAME NAME.

There are in Connecticut towns, boroughs, and villages that do not appear in the list of post-offices. To make the REGISTER as complete as possible in this respect, this list was prepared in 1891.

Since it appeared in the REGISTER for 1892 a list of the localities in each town has been sent to the town clerk for correction, and with a few exceptions these have been returned with proper corrections made.

When there is no numeral referring to the P. O., it is the same as the town.

REPRESENTATIVES.

Previous to 1837 the Representatives from this State were elected by the people at large. The number at first, under the Constitution, was five, and by later apportionments it was changed in 1793 to seven, in 1823 to six, and in 1843 to four. From 1837 to 1843 they were elected one from each of the six districts into which the State was divided by an Act of the General Assembly; since 1843 they have been elected, one from each of the four districts established by the General Assembly of 1842, as follows: District number one, consisting of the counties of Hartford and Tolland; district number two, the counties of New Haven and Middlesex; district number three, the counties of New London and Windham; district number four, the counties of Fairfield and Litchfield.

GOVERNORS OF CONNECTICUT.

The supreme executive power of the State is vested by the Constitution in the Governor. He has power to administer oaths, sign writs, and issue process. He is directed to see that the laws are faithfully executed. On special emergencies he may convene the General Assembly in special session, at any place in the State. He is commander-in-chief of the militia of the State; has power to grant reprieves in all cases except impeachment; may himself be impeached; has power in the matter of requisitions for criminals. All commissions must be signed by him, and he may appoint Notaries Public, and Commissioners in other states and in the territories. He has power to veto all bills passed by the Assembly, but his veto may be overridden by a majority vote in both Houses, upon a reconsideration. Any bill not returned by him within three days, Sundays excepted, after being presented to him, becomes a law in like manner as if signed by him, unless the General Assembly by its adjournment prevents its return, in which case it does not become a law. He shall from time to time give to the General Assembly information of the state of the government, and recommend such measures as he deems expedient. He may adjourn the General Assembly in case of disagreement between the two Houses to such time as he thinks proper, not beyond the day of the next stated session. He nominates to the General Assembly the judges of the Supreme and Superior Courts, appoints one or more State Chemists, and a Dairy Commissioner, and, with the consent of the Senate, appoints the Insurance Commissioner, Railroad Commissioners; Bank Commissioners. Fish Commissioners, Board of Agriculture, Board of Charities, Harbor Commissioners, Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, directors of the State Prison, and the members of the State Board of Health. He is, ex officio, a member of the State Boards of Education, Agriculture, and Pardons, a member of the State Library Committee, a Trustee of the Connecticut Hospital for the Insane, a member of the Corporation of Yale University, and one of the Board of Visitors to the Sheffield Scientific School.

The Governor presided over the General Assembly before it was divided into two houses in 1698: from that date until the adoption of the Constitution of 1818 he presided in the council or upper house, with a casting vote but no veto power.

The title of His Excellency was given to the Governor by an act passed in May, 1777.

The Governor holds his office for two years, and receives an annual salary of $4,000.

† By Constitutional Amendment of 1875, the term for 1876-7 was made to expire January, 1877.

DEPUTY OR LIEUTENANT- GOVERNORS.

Before the Constitution of 1818 the Deputy-Governor presided in council, or the upper house of the General Assembly, in the absence of the Governor; but when the Governor was present the Deputy-Governor had a voice in council. Until 1818 he could exercise the office of a justice of the peace throughout the State, and he could sign writs until 1879.

The Lieutenant-Governor is President of the Senate, has a casting vote therein, and the right to debate when it is in Committee of the Whole. In case of the death, resignation, refusal to serve, impeachment, removal from office, or absence from the State of the Governor, the Lieutenant-Governor is required by the Constitution "to perform the duties of the Governor, until another be chosen at the next periodical election for Governor, and be duly qualified; or, until the Governor impeached or absent, shall be acquitted or return." He is, ex officio, a member of the Corporation of Yale University, the State Board of Education, the Board of Visitors to the Sheffield Scientific School, and a director of the Connecticut Industrial School for Girls.

The title of His Honor was conferred upon the Lieutenant-Governor at the revision of the Statutes in 1784.

He is elected for two years and receives an annual salary of $500.

SECRETARIES.

The Secretary of the State has the keeping of all the public documents and records of the State, and particularly of the Acts and Resolutions and Orders of the General Assembly, and is required to record the same. He is the keeper of the great seal of the State, and is required by the Constitution to attest all commissions issued in the name and by the authority of the State. In his office are filed certificates of the organization of all corporations, and annual statements of the affairs of all joint stock corporations. He is required to prepare and publish annually this statistical book, and at the opening of each session of the General Assembly, a roll and manual for its use. He also superintends the publication and distribution of the laws. At the opening of every regular session of the Assembly he calls the Senate to order, and administers the official oath to the Senators present, and makes the formal proclamation at the final adjournment of the General Assembly.

He is a director, ex officio, of the Connecticut Industrial School for Girls, and a member of the State Board of Canvassers.

His term is for two years, and his salary $1,500 per annum.

TREASURERS.

The Treasurer is the custodian of all moneys belonging to the State, and is to disburse the same only as he may be directed by law. All warrants or orders for the disbursement of public money must be registered in the Comptroller's office before they can be paid by the Treasurer. He is required to give bonds to the State in the sum of $50,000, and each of his clerks in the sum of $15,000. Annually, on or before November first, he is to make a complete statement of the receipts and expenditures of the State for the fiscal year ending on the 30th of September preceding, and of its debts and credits on that day, and report the same to the Governor, who shall lay the same before the General Assembly at its next session, and biennially he is to prepare estimates of State expenditures for the ensuing two years. Mortgages to the State or to the Treasurer are released by him. He is a member of the State Board of Equalization and the Board of Canvassers.

He is elected for two years, and receives an annual salary of $1,500.

COMPTROLLERS.

The office of Comptroller was created in 1786, by the General Assembly, by whom the appointment was made until 1838, and since then, by the Constitutional Amendment of 1836, he has been elected by the people, in like manner as other State officers.

Before the institution of this office orders on the Treasurer might be drawn by the Governor, or assistants; and by justices of the peace for sums under forty shillings. The Committee of the Pay-Table, which this office superseded, was originally established to liquidate and adjust accounts of expenses relating to the War of the Revolution.

The Comptroller is required to adjust and settle all public accounts and demands, except grants and orders of the General Assembly, and to prescribe the mode of keeping and rendering all public accounts. It is his duty to state, from time to time, the amount of debts and credits of the State, to examine into the collection of taxes, to see that all officers engaged in their assessment or collection faithfully perform their duty, and to report to the General Assembly those who are unfaithful; to present all claims in favor of the State against estates of insolvent and deceased persons, and bring suits for the recovery of the money and property of the State.

He procures the State printing to be done, has the care of the State Capitol and grounds, and may appoint a superintendent and assistant superintendent thereof. He is required to submit to the General Assembly, at the opening of each regular session, and oftener, if required, an abstract of the receipts and expenditures of the public funds for the two years ending the 30th of September preceding, and plans and estimates relating to the public expenditures, revenues, and funds.

He is, ex officio, one of the Auditors of the Treasurer's accounts, and a member of the State Board of Equalization, and the Board of Canvassers.

He is elected for two years, and receives an annual salary of $1,500.
